Plebgate review ordered

AN independent review has been ordered by the body representing rank-and-file police officers into "issues" raised by its handling of the "Plebgate" row.

Police Federation chairman Paul McKeever has acknowledged concerns that it "stoked up" the Downing Street incident which led to former Chief Whip Andrew Mitchell quitting the Cabinet.

He said he would apologise to the MP if it was shown he had been wrongly accused of calling cops "plebs" in a bust-up over their refusal to let him ride his bike through the gates.

Mr McKeever has handed control to his successor-elect Steve Williams just over a month before he is officially due to leave the role, due to "pre-existing leave arrangements".

One of Mr Williams' first acts was to announce plans for the review.

Woman killed in bus stop scrash

A WOMAN was killed at a bus stop after being hit by a car which 10 minutes earlier had driven off after a crash with another vehicle, police said yesterday.

The victim, believed to be in her 30s, was pronounced dead at the scene in Streatham, south London.

Two men were also left in a critical condition.

The first incident happened at 5.20am when an Audi and a Volkswagen crashed in Croydon.

Just 10 minutes later the Audi hit two people at the bus stop.

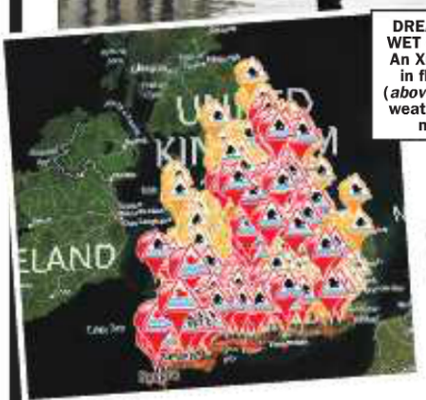

Scotland Yard said the occupants of the car made off before the police arrived.

No arrests have been made.

LOOKS LIKE RAIN, DEAR!

Santa swamped as Xmas getaway submerged

By JUSTIN DUNN
justin@sundaysport.co.uk

CHRISTMAS travel plans for millions are in chaos as flood warnings across the UK crippled roads and rail networks.

Even Santa himself got a soaking – with an illuminated Father Christmas figure seen stranded in a garden in Helston, Cornwall.

With much of the country battered by heavy rain the Environment Agency issued 338 flood alerts and 126 warnings.

The south west of England was most severely affected with four severe flood warnings.

There was also a heightened flood risk across Somerset, Dorset, Bristol, Hampshire, the Isle of Wight, West and East Sussex, south Wales, Gwynedd and North Yorkshire.

CARNAGE: Travellers face misery

Parts of York city centre were flooded yesterday.

In Devon and Cornwall, Police evacuated people from their homes as rising river levels flooded properties.

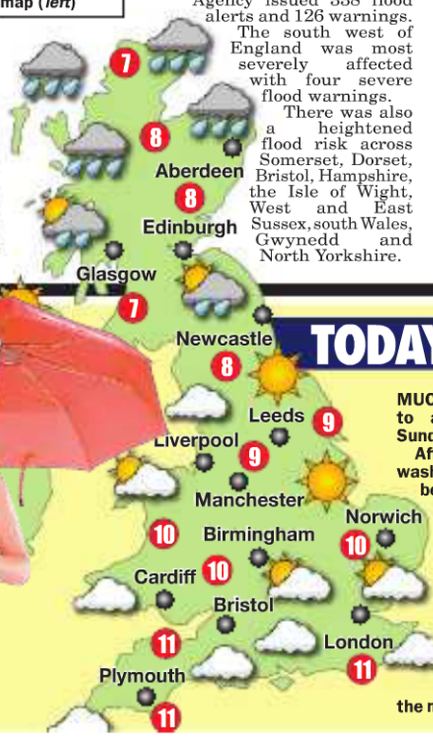

Flooding

Conditions were so bad in the south west that train operator First Great Western told passengers not to travel.

The towns of Helston and Braunton were most badly affected and despite emergency services working hard to reduce the impact of flooding, the situation was expected to get worse overnight.

Forecasters predicted an inch and a half of rainfall in Cornwall during a six hour period from 5pm.

Braunton was cut off, with homes and shops under water after the River Caen burst its banks.

TODAY'S WEATHER

MUCH of the country will wake to an unfamiliar sound on Sunday – the rain NOT falling.

After enough rain to almost wash away our sins, there will be a brief respite on the Lord's day.

Alas, the rain will continue to fall in Scotland and Northern Ireland and by teatime it will be back in the south of England, the south Midlands and South Wales.

Temperatures will be 11C in the south, 7C in the north, inbetween elsewhere.

THREE-DAY WEATHER OUTLOOK

TUESDAY:	WEDNESDAY:	THURSDAY:
Dry mostly	Dry mostly	Sun & showers

Monday will be a vision of grey awfulness, with rain aplenty and fog in parts of Yorkshire. The north east of Scotland will see some sunshine – though if you go out in it, you'll likely be eaten by a polar bear.

Temperatures much the same as Sunday.

OUTLOOK: Fine for many.

"HERE'S me in my saucy Santa outfit, do you like it?

I've got rid of the big red coat – I feel far too hot for that, thoough I'll keep a flimsy basquey thing on.

I've got a pair of Father Christmas boots,too.

Well, they're not actually like the usual ones – they come up over my knees and rub against the inside of my creamy white thighs.

So, bobbly hat, thigh boots, basque and nothing else – that's enough, isn't it? Thought so!"

Miranda's loud pussy problem!

RED-FACED comic Miranda Hart has revealed her X-rated PUSSY shame.

The BBC1 star says she had tennis fans spluttering into their strawberries and cream after blurting-out the obscenity at posh Wimbledon.

The 40-year-old explained she'd been trying to get the attention of her friend, who'd previously been nicknamed "Pussy" because of her love of CATS.

Funnygirl Miranda said: "My dearest friends at school had given each other harmless nicknames.

"But it's embarrassing when you find yourself shouting, 'Pussy!' excitedly across centre court at Wimbledon during a quiet match point, 15 years later!"

The sturdy star also confessed lusty male suitors have been bombarding her with rude suggestions.

She admitted: "Obviously I've been far too busy.

"But the offers have come flooding in – it's just CONSTANT."

HOLLYWOOD babe Amanda Seyfried faked giving a blow job on her new movie – by sucking on a on a LOLLIPOP!

The sexy beauty had to give her co-star Peter Sarsgaard a gobble in Lovelace, a biopic about Deep Throat porn star Linda Lovelace.

Amanda, 27, revealed: "We were doing a sex scene where I was supposed to be going down on Peter.

"We used a Popsicle, and I had my arms covering it. It was great because it would make my lips wet and inflamed.

"I can't believe I went that far just now."

The blonde stunna then recorded additional "slurping noises" in the studio to make it sound authentic.

Amanda, who stars in upcoming musical Les Miserables, admitted she was left in stitches over the simulated sex scene in Lovelace.

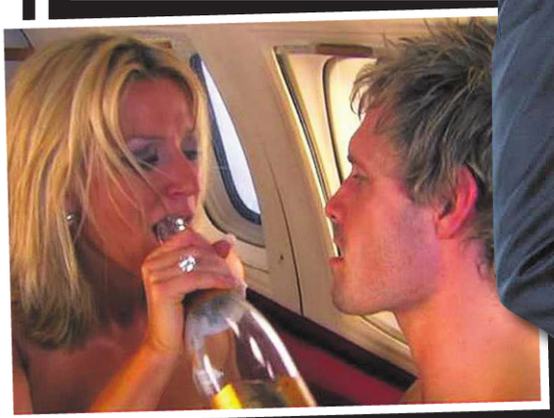

She added: "I was laughing hysterically throughout. I couldn't stop."

WHAT YOU WON'T SEE IN SOAP'S XMAS

CORRIE HIGH

PRIVATE PARTS: Pair on jet launch into hot telly sex scene

YOU'RE GOING DOWN: Fine bit of acting by Ben and Zoe

By RACHEL SPENCER
rachel@sundaysport.co.uk

THESE are the champagne fuelled sex romps that are putting the cat among the pigeons at Coronation Street!

The jaw-dropping scenes feature Corrie's Nick Tilsey NAKED while he screws a topless blonde.

He's seen pouring bubbly over the girl's boobs before LICKING it off and then joining the MILE HIGH club on a private jet.

The pair then proceed to shag like rabbits while she digs her acrylic nails into his bum cheeks and carves her initial into his FLESH!

The incredible scenes come from when Ben Price, 40, who plays Nick in the soap, starred in the infamous ITV series Footballers Wives as bisexual soccer team captain Conrad Gates.

Flashed

Viewers saw Conrad's screen wife Amber hit the roof when he hopped out of her bed naked with the telling scratch on show.

The shagging scenes with actress Zoe Lucker were dubbed the raciest ever on UK telly when they were screened – and in another episode Ben even flashed his WILLY!

Now, in Corrie, he's got the biggest storyline of the Christmas Special, when his wife-to-be Leanne, played by Jane Danson, 34, is torn between him and Peter Barlow, 44-year-old Chris Gascoyne.

Speaking about the Christmas scenes, where show bosses are still deciding whether or not he will be ditched at the altar, Ben said: "There's an amazing twist. I think she loves Nick. And I think she loves the excitement of Peter."

Meanwhile Nick is caught up in a love triangle with Leanne and his ex, her sister Eva Pope, played by busty Catherine Tyldesley, 29, with whom he shared a recent smooch.

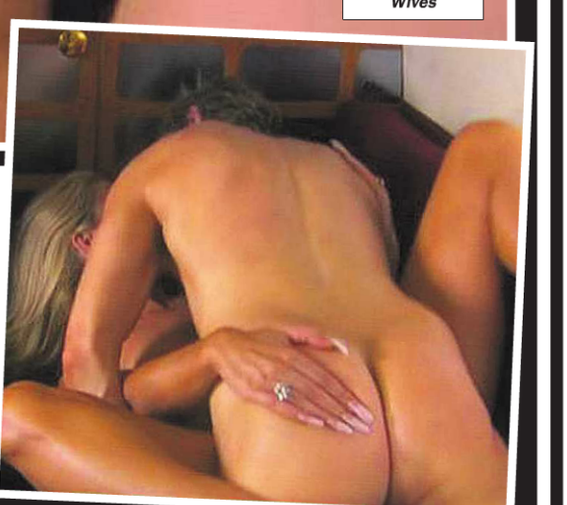

DAY WEDDING EPISODE

NICK'S MILE SEX ROMPS

Street hunk strips naked for EXPLICIT scenes

BEN THERE, DONE THAT: Zoe gets a screen reaming from Ben in Footballer's Wives

But if romping with two sisters sounds outrageous take a look at what Ben got up to in Footballers Wives.

At one point his character Conrad had the two women living with him who pregnant – wife Amber, played by Laila Rouass and maneater Tanya.

Speaking about the Mile High scenes, Ben said: "It was only my second week of filming and I had to simulate wild sex with Zoe on a private jet – what a great job!

"Every day was a shocker on Footballers Wives, but probably the naked stuff on the jet with Zoe was sauciest.

"Although, walking naked through a hotel lobby in Thailand was up there. I just did it. It's not like walking naked into The Rovers, it had a context.

Fearless

"If I'd been embarrassed, the show wouldn't have worked, I had to be fearless."

Earls Park skipper Conrad also built up a gay following by romping with men, too.

He bedded team-mate Noah Alexander, played by Marcel Macalla, and some love scenes were so explicit they had to be cut.

In Corrie he's been just as much of a swordsman.

Diner boss Nick smooched with Tina McIntyre, played by Michelle Keegan and dated Maria Connor (Samia Ghadie), before his latest love triangle.

A Corrie mole said: "If they wanted to get ratings up, they need Ben to go back to scenes like the ones he did on Footballers Wives!"

Kim's rocket party is the dog's b*ll*cks

NORTH Korean leader Kim Jong-un has hosted a DOG banquet for scientists to celebrate the recent "successful" rocket launch, saying it "showed off our overall national power."

Kim congratulated the boffins on their great contribution to the launch of the second version of the satellite Kwangmyongsong-3.

In his banquet speech, the dictator said: "This rocket launch, which was carried out with our people's dignity, is a solemn announcement that showed our legal right in the peaceful use of the space and our military-first country's historical achievement – which is showing off our overall national power."

The menu reportedly consisted of dog soup, dog pie and dog soufflé.

Kim's wife Ri Sol-ju, who is rumoured to be pregnant, also attended.

The rocket was launched on December 12, defence officials in South Korea and Japan said, and was more successful than a rocket sent up in April that flew for less than two minutes.

Nurse prank call case 'offences' considered

SCOTLAND Yard has submitted a file to the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) over a prank call to the hospital where the Duchess of Cambridge was treated for morning sickness.

Nurse Jacintha Saldanha, 46, was found hanged after forwarding a call from two Australian DJs to a colleague who then described Kate's condition in detail.

The CPS will now consider whether any potential offences may have been committed.

Ms Saldanha was found dead in nurses' quarters at London's King Edward VII's Hospital on December 7.

Three days earlier she handled a call from Mel Greig and Michael Christian, believing they were the Queen and Prince of Wales.

An inquest in to her death was opened and adjourned.

DROP OFF MY PRESENTS, SANTA... OR THE KITTEN GETS IT!

THE BLEND IS NIGH: This is the sick snap sent to Santa

MONSTER: Ale-supping Tommy, nine, is totally out of control

Young thug's threat in letter to North Pole

A LITTLE lout aged just NINE has threatened to LIQUIDISE his pet kitten in a blender if he doesn't get what he wants from Father Christmas.

Vest-wearing Tommy Coleman is "hopelessly out of control", say his despairing parents Mike and Cheryl.

Monster

The ruddy-faced little monster has even stuffed six-week-old kitty Molly into his mum's kitchen blender for a photo – although he DID NOT turn it on.

By JUSTIN DUNN
justin@sundaysport.co.uk

Tommy, from Birkenhead, Merseyside, then included the sickening snap along with a letter he addressed to "Father Xmas, North Pole".

The badly-spelt note to Santa demands a games console, "strong lager" and cigarettes before going on to threaten the life of the fluffy feline if the gifts aren't delivered.

The letter, which was covered in cigarette scorches, reads: "Santa Claws (sic) fella, I wanna Wii U for me Chrimbo prezzy an a phew udder tings 2 ok?

Angel

"I wanna four pack of Stella Artwat and twenny Bennos. Get me mam and dad sum Bennos too rite cos I dont want them knikking mine ta santa hope ur sound. PS c de fin cat ? its not comin out ov der till I get me chrissy shite ok? ? ? totes xpetin now dont let me down or mollys goin in de punch LOLZ"

The letter and image, snapped on a pay-as-you-go mobile phone, were passed to Sunday Sport investigators by a "concerned source".

Tommy's mother Cheryl, 29, was distraught when we approached her at her tenement home last week.

"He's been like this for the last couple of years – we're pretty much at the end of our tether," she sobbed.

"He's an angel when he's in school but when he comes home he's a monster. He helps himself to lager and cigarettes and sits there swearing at the telly."

We tried to speak to young Tommy, but he booted our reporter in the shins and ran away laughing.

Snappa Bailey's blast at feminists over casual sex

LEGENDARY fashion photographer David Bailey has hit out at "silly" feminists who have attacked him over one night stands.

The Sixties icon, now 75, says they gave him "a terrible time" for sleeping with more than one woman.

In an interview with Sky Arts, which will be shown next month, the four-times married snappa defends his one night stands.

He said: "Like it's my fault they slept with me? They had a choice – it wasn't rape or anything.

"You used to be a bad boy if you slept with a lot of women. And I did. People can't bear that. I can't see what's wrong with that really. It was a bit of fun.

"I had a terrible time in the 70s with all those silly feminists."

Describing how he was brought up by his mother and aunt, he adds: "I was surrounded by strong women so it never occurred to me women were anything other than equal to men.

"Then all those bloody feminists started attacking me, the silly uptight cows – having a go because I slept with more than one woman."

CHRISTMAS TIPPLES

Five stars for meths!

ONLINE jokers are leaving hilarious rave reviews on the merits of drinking METHS.

More than 60 Amazon customers have left their spoof remarks on the website's page offering bottles of Barrettine Methylated Spirit 500ml for £4.96.

The skits claim to be written by tramps – notorious for seeking the cheapest possible hit in a bottle.

They read like wine reviews – describing the "nose" of the lilac-coloured liquid and the burning "finish" on the back of the tongue.

WHAT THE amazon REVIEWS SAY

"THE nose is similar to a fine Algerian vodka on the palette. Fragrant hydrocarbon appear first, followed by a searing alcoholic kick and the finish is brief and flammable. Half way through the first bottle, I was merrily reliving my salad days on the road. By the end of the third I was screaming incoherently at the traffic in a soiled tracksuit."

Park Bench Pete

"I RECENTLY took a bottle of 2011 Barrettine to a dinner party. Handing the bottle proudly to the hostess, I was disappointed to see her somewhat frosty reaction. Still, in the context of a wider milieu of cultural mediocrity, I say 'hats off' to Barrettine's for a product that can excite strong passions and debate."

Gordon Lynch

"Traditionalists will end the Christmas feast with a glass of Barrettine Methylated Spirit. It is an especially good match with Christmas pudding."

D Mann

"THIS 2012 lilac has a nose of dried herbs with liquorice and black cherry. In the mouth it's powerful and tight with more dark, earthy fruit countered by freshness and a long park-bench finish."

DOGGERS FLOCK TO BETHLEHEM FOR FESTIVE SEX ROMPS

By NEIL GOODWIN
neil@sundaysport.co.uk

HOLY ROW: Leafy lanes round the village are a magnet of sex-hungry doggers

RED-FACED locals in a village called Bethlehem are exclaiming 'Jesus, Mary and Joseph!' after being deluged by bands of festive DOGGERS!

The Christmassy-named hamlet nestles in a picturesque part of Carmarthenshire, south Wales, on the borders of the stunning Brecon Beacons National Park.

Every year it hosts a twinkly Christmas market, and over the decades folk have been flocking there to post their Christmas cards.

But it's not just a unique postmark that's been attracting some of the latest saucy sightseers.

Because the farming village has also become a popular haven for XXX-Mas SWINGERS, who park their cars in nearby country lanes to indulge in kinky group NOOKIE!

Naughty

One stunned witness said: "Some of the 'shepherds' in Bethlehem aren't watching their flocks – they're far more concerned with their COCKS!

"Nothing gets you in the mood for Christmas, it seems, quite like a kinky trip to Bethlehem!"

The sleepy village is named as a "suitable location for dogging" on several specialist websites, with one praising the "Bethlehem Road" that runs between the village and nearby Ffairfach for its "abundance of quiet lay-bys".

User FlirtyMel wrote: "Anyone looking to bring a little Christmas cheer to complete strangers could do worse than Bethlehem.

"It's a great location, and the sort of people who regularly go there are VERY open-minded types indeed.

"The last time I was there three very naughty Kings couldn't wait to give me some festive gifts – a pearl necklace being one of them! My poor Fiat Punto took some punishment that night."

But others aren't exactly happy with willing ladies bringing their alternative brand of Christmas cheer to male revellers.

Sheep

Angharad Jones, leader of campaign group Keep Wales Decent, said the spunk-heavy practice was "blasphemy of the highest order" and urged doggers to "stay away".

She added: "We're not prudes but the only things we want to see having sex in the fields around here are the sheep."

Allergy woman says get stuffed to Xmas dinner

A WOMAN has been banned from eating a traditional Christmas dinner for the past 15 years because she is ALLERGIC to it.

Becky Irvin, 33, has had to avoid turkey, stuffing, gravy, pigs in blankets, wine and sweet treats because of her rare condition.

So the university administrator from York will be tucking in to her dry beef and veg on December 25.

Becky said: "Due to the yeast extracts in turkey, stuffing, gravy and alcohol I can't have any.

"I would get bloating in my stomach and stabbing pains, headaches, fatigue and sickness.

"This year I'll be having a bit of dry beef, with potato, veg and no gravy because of the yeast.

"I don't really like veg either – but it's one of the few food groups I can get away with."

"This year I might indulge myself with a small glass of wine or a piece of Christmas cake but I know I'll have to pay the price afterwards."

STRICTLY Come Dancing* babe Denise Van Outen once made a man climax in his pants on the Tube!

The former Big Breakfast babe was playing a saucepot called Alex who was chatted up on the London Underground by a randy old man.

But instead of giving him the brush off, she fiddled with her boobs and teased him until he EXPLODED!

The 38-year-old star appeared in the film Tube Tales alongside actor Tom Bell – who played the randy old man.

In the clip, directed by Stephen Hopkins, Denise gets on the Tube and says: "Is it just me or do Tube journeys make you really horny?

"It's not like I'm some raving nympho who gets a kick out of being shunted backwards and forwards through a dark tunnel, only to be ejected at the other end slightly breathless and a little bit STICKY.

"It's not that at all, it's the whole 'trapped' thing. It brings out the peep show devil in you."

Saucy

Then she sits down and spots a randy old man gawping at her boobs, and decides to put on a saucy show.

She puts on her make-up and tossing her hair around, then pushes her boobs together and BLOWS on them.

She even rubs her head on the man's pin stripe trouser clad CROTCH as she pretends to get something out of her bag.

The clip ends with other passengers looking on in horror as the man finally shoots his load!

EVEREST OR BUST!

Mega-snap of mountain shows babe flashing boobs

NEVER mind Nepal – here's a fine view of NIP-ALS, 20,000ft up the side of Mount Everest.

Our eagle-eyed boffins spotted this sexy mountaineer flashing her BOOBS on the slopes of the world's highest peak.

The astonishing view was possible thanks to this new TWO BILLION PIXEL image of the mountain, released last week.

The image is made up of 477 individual photographs, taken during the climbing season in spring 2012 from vantage points all around the mountain with a 300mm lens.

The panoramic photograph was captured from the Pumori viewpoint. In the foreground is the Khumbu Icefall – where the bare-boobed babe is pictured and it is possible to zoom in and see people roaming around the Everest Base Camp below.

The project was headed by American mountaineer and filmmaker David Breashears, who, in 1985, became the first American to reach the summit.

It's not known if the daring babe reached the summit of the 29,000ft mountain or became one of Everest's many annual victims.

Asteroid nearly killed all of us

THE Doomsday mongers were almost right – because top space boffins have admitted that a massive asteroid came within a whisker of obliterating Earth this month.

Tinfoil hat-wearing loons had predicted that the world was going to end on December 21st, to coincide with the ancient Mayan calendar.

And their grim prophecy almost came true when a lump of rock 200ft across passed within 140,000 miles of Earth – roughly half the distance to the Moon – just TWO DAYS after it was detected on December 9th.

Sarka Jiraskova, scientist at the University of Nijmegen, Netherlands, warned: "If it had hit there would have been very little that could have been done.

As if that isn't scary enough, another asteroid called 'Apophis' is due to come within 22,000 miles of the planet in 2029."

But the 56-year-old fanatical conspiracy theorist isn't... because he's DEAD!

Divorced Landers was convinced the apocalypse would arrive on December 21 – as predicted by the ancient Mayan civilisation and dramatized in the Hollywood movie 2012.

And he spent £30,000 – his life savings – converting the cellar of his terraced home in Crewe, Cheshire, into an End Times-proof bunker.

But the notorious perfectionist made TOO good a job of his safe haven and was unable to get the trapdoor open after Friday came and went without catastrophe.

Commiserate

Without sufficient air in the sealed survival unit, he very slowly suffocated and died.

Pal Oscar Jennings, a fellow survivalist, found the body on Saturday afternoon when he went round to commiserate with George over the non-End-of-the-World.

Oscar, 46, said: "George was my only friend, and I was his only friend – after the incident at Nantwich.

"How ironic that he locked himself in that bunker to save himself from certain doom at the Final Trumpet – and it ended up killing him.

"You've got to laugh, I suppose!"

NUZZLE INTO THESE, CLAUDIA!

BBC1 film show babe reveals lesbo lust for big fake boobs

TELLY totty Claudia Winkleman has a kinky lesbian secret.

The brunette babe, who presents Film 2012 on BBC1, says she LOVES big FAKE boobs and wants to stick her FACE in them!

And Sunday Sport stunna Krystal Webb has offered Claudia (left) her pair of enormous 30FF's to nuzzle into this Christmas.

Claudia, 40, is happily married – but says her mouth waters at the sight of a big pair of breasts.

The movie lover said: "False boobs just get rock hard.

"You see these women and their boobs just look so stunning – you're salivating and want to nuzzle them."

And Krystal – who's cosmetically-enhanced assets should fit the bill – says Claudia is welcome to put her face in them ANYTIME!

The 22-year-old from Birmingham said: "Folk are always asking if I they can have a squeeze or a look – and it's usually women who are the most fascinated.

"If Claudia wants to come and have a play with my boobs, she's welcome anytime!

FILM BUFF: Claudia loves big fake boobs like our Krystal's

Foot doctor struck off for filming women naked

A FOOT doctor who filmed himself having sex with a woman on a treadmill and made more than 100 films of him sexually massaging others has been kicked out of the profession.

Podiatrist Howard Price insisted the women in his videos agreed to be recorded and told police: "If I wanted to perv, there's lots of places on the web for that."

Price, who worked as an orthopaedic podiatry specialist at University Hospital of South Manchester for 27 years, had no clinical reason to perform examinations while patients were naked, the Health and Care Professions Council heard.

A disciplinary panel decided the semi-retired perv, who labelled some of the tapes "shaved and naked", had abused the trust of patients and could not be allowed to continue practising.

His video collection came to light when a bin bag containing 11 VHS cassettes was anonymously handed in by a woman to Stockport Police Station on June 29, 2010.

Mary Page, for the HCPC, told the hearing: "Parts of the footage showed Mr Price massaging female patients with baby oil around the vaginal and pubic areas."

The panel ruled the "only appropriate and proportionate sanction to protect the public is a striking off order".

No Palace Crimbo do for Wills & Kate

PRINCE William will spend this Christmas away from the Royal family, choosing to be with his pregnant wife Kate at the Middleton family home instead.

The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge are to spend the day privately in Bucklebury, Berkshire – a decision taken with the approval of the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh.

However, the royal couple do plan to visit the Sandringham Estate, in Norfolk, at some point over the festive period.

A St James's Palace spokesman said: "The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge will spend Christmas Day privately with the Middleton family."

A Royal insider said: "He's going to be King one day but he still gets dragged to the mother-in-law's on Crimbo Day rather than kicking back at a palace. He must be f*ing gutted."

YULE NOT BE ARSED

MARY Christmas, 53, who's married to a man called NOEL and lives in YULE Avenue, won't be celebrating Xmas on Tuesday – as she became a Muslim in June.

ELF FOR LEATHER!

Santa's little helper is kinky dominatrix

GNOME IS WHERE THE TART IS: The saucy double life of Santa's helper was kept under wraps until now

SANTA will be questioning the very point of his existence this morning – when he discovers that one of his elfin helpers is a kinky spanking TART!

Tiny Rosamund Overton has spent the last week helping Santa distribute pressies to starry-eyed kiddies in underprivileged areas.

But when darkness falls, the 25-year-old midget empties SACKS of a very different kind – THRASHING men until they make a mess!

Gifts

Acting on a tip-off, a Sunday Sport reporter dressed as a little girl and mingled with other children receiving gifts handed out by "Santa" on behalf of local businesses around the Tower Hamlets area of east London.

Before he was chased off by concerned parents, our man confirmed that one of St Nick's helpers was none other than Overton – who moonlights as "Mistress Titchy".

Advertising on specialist websites, four-foot Overton offers "A", "BS", "QV", "PS" and even "BB" – all acts we are unable to describe in a national newspaper, due to the conclusions of the Leveson Report.

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

Posing as a kinky punter, our man visited Mistress Titchy's well-equipped sex dungeon in the Forest Gate area of the capital where he was handed a grubby "menu" of vice acts.

Opting for a service described as "Reverse Bengal", our man was invited to disrobe in a dark and smoke-filled bedroom.

Tottering on four-inch heels and clad in leather straps, Overton then entered and proceeded to commit an act on our man's person that would be too upsetting to describe in a German scat journal – never mind in a respected family newspaper.

After reluctantly emptying his male lotion over the diddy madam's latex gloves, our man made his excuses and left.

When we confronted Overton about her illicit antics, she at first denied everything, before sobbing: "Don't tell Santa".

We were able to make that promise. Because it ain't Santa we're telling...as we're taking our dossier on the pint-sized prossie straight to the authorities!

Booze ban Santa gets his Claus into glass of milk

HARDWORKING Santa will be on the wagon this year with most folk putting out MILK for him instead of booze, as a Christmas Eve treat.

A poll of 1,000 people showed alcoholic drinks were being dumped in favour of milk for Father Christmas to sup when he comes down the chimney on December 24.

One in four people were planning to put out a glass of milk for Santa and leave carrots for his reindeer, with just 14 per cent leaving a traditional sherry.

Just 1% said they would leave a pint of beer or a dram of whisky for him.

The poll, by discount bookstore The Works, also found Scots were the most stingy when it comes to leaving Santa treats, with just 39% offering mince pies.

The survey found northerners were the most festive, with 51% leaving mince pies, sherry and carrots on Christmas Eve.

The survey also found that CD, books and DVDs were a top gift, with 40% saying they would be buying at least one book as a present this year.

A spokesman for The Works said the results showed that Santa would be steering his sleigh safely this year with less booze left out.

Turkeys out of the fire, but into the frying pan

A GANG of 250 turkeys have been rescued from a blazing fire – but are still destined to be served as Christmas dinner this week.

Eight people, including four firemen, managed to move the birds from one barn to another after the blaze broke out at a farm.

The cause of the fire at the farm in Petersfield, Hants, has not yet been discovered but a timber workshop was completely destroyed.

However, despite this incident the unfortunate fate of the turkeys looks set to remain unchanged.

James Morton, of Hampshire Fire and Rescue Service, said: "Unfortunately I don't think the fire will spare the fate of the turkeys this Christmas.

"As I understand, they are still due to be slaughtered."

Roisin Hunter
Age 27, 30DD-25-34, from Islington

"BAUBLES, baubles everywhere – and none more so than in my bra!

I love getting my own glittering globes out during the festive season so that all the fellas can have a good gawp.

They attract plenty of attention too, especially after a few eggnogs.

Maybe I should cover them in glitter this year – that would really get me into the spirt of Christmas."

ATTA GIRL, BJORK!

Wildlife legend's 'honey' TOPLESS

By JUSTIN DUNN
justin@sundaysport.co.uk

THESE stunning boobs will have natural history buff David Attenborough even MORE smitten by dotty Icelandic singer Bjork.

The 86-year-old recently admitted he'd started calling the pert pop star "honey" when they worked together on a new nature documentary.

He hooked up with the 47-year-old Big Time Sensuality singer for a programme about music in nature, like whale noises.

But BBC veteran may well be making whale noises himself when he learns that Bjork once posed topless for photos that showed her trussed up and wearing two NIPPLE RINGS.

Attenborough – due to present Galapagos 3D on Sky1 on New Year's Day – said of his new showbiz pal: "I called her 'honey'. She really is quite enchanting."

AS CHANNEL 4 TURN BAD 'UNS INTO FATHER CHRISTMAS, WE LOOK AT...

VERY BAD SANTAS

LOW LOW LOW: Drink is the only friend for some of these tragic cases

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

YOU'D think that handing out gifts to kids and saying "Ho-Ho-Ho" is about as easy as a job ever gets.

But being Father Christmas ain't easy – there is even a Santa School where prospective St Nicks can learn their trade.

Last week Channel 4 took a group of men in their fifties who were unemployed to see if they could make it into the grotto in time for Christmas.

Because the men aiming for the coveted red sack had been in trouble with the bottle or the law, TV bosses decided to call the two-parter Bad Santas.

They can't have been looking very hard, though.

A quick trawl through the unrinsed sewers of British life throws up some shady folk who've pulled on the famed red and white suit.

So today, with heavy heart, we look the VERY Bad Santas...

EDDIE KUERR, BRIGHTON

A GRATEFUL child sat happily on Santa's knee is an image of Christmas we have treasured since our own first visit to the big man.

But outside Kuerr's grotto, all you will find is a queue of wailing infants, bewildered and disappointed at being denied a rummage in Santa's sack.

For Kuerr only allows young, blond men into his grotto and spends so much time on each visitor, there's often no time to distribute gifts.

One of his exasperated elves told us: "I don't know what he does with those young lads but at the end of the day he's spent!"

SID FORBES, MANCHESTER

EVERY day is Christmas Day for thirsty Sid. That is, if you spend Christmas Day sitting in a puddle of your own FILTH.

He made headlines in the 80s as the man who celebrates Christmas every day and even appeared alongside Hugh Scully on the BBC magazine show Nationwide in 1982.

Then, one day, he awoke to the utter futility of his existence and took immediately to strong liquor.

Still wearing his Santa outfit, he is a regular sight on the streets of Manchester and is even pointed out as an unlikely tourist attraction by guides in the UK's second city.

THOMAS KLINKER, LONDON

IN 2004 Klinker became the first person dressed as Santa to call "Yo-Ho-Ho" in every station on the London Underground.

He travelled to the Wiltshire home of Guinness Book of Records boss Norris McWhirter but found out Norris had died earlier that year.

The shock unhinged Klinker's fragile mind and he retreated to the bowels of the capital where he rode the Underground, becoming unclean and aggressive.

In 2008 he was taken into protective medical custody with suspected plague.

ARCHIE COLTRANE, LEEDS

WHAT'S the essence of Christmas? Celebrating the birth of Our Lord Jesus? Hell no!

Christmas is a time for shameless gluttony and for shoving fat-laden kilos into our drooling maws.

But Archie Coltrane takes that tradition to a new low – by STEALING food from the needy.

Dressed as Santa, 56-year-old Coltrane volunteers to distribute crimbo tucker to the homeless and vulnerable of Leeds.

But once he has a tray of hot food in his hands he scuttles away to a dark corner and feasts.

It's rumoured that last year he broke into a poultry farm and ate a LIVE turkey!

MIKE TOFT, CREWE

FROM this picture, you could assume that Toft is penniless and spends his days rifling skips to find a few scraps of food.

If only this were true.

Toft's fortune reaches far into the millions and his scavenging is a symptom of his compulsive greed.

While searching the streets for any unclaimed belongings, he wears a disguise and at Christmas that disguise is usually a Santa suit.

The 67-year-old hoarder has even been known to place DEAD DOGS in his sack. And what becomes of the canine corpses, we dare not ask!

DARIUS STOKENCHURCH, SOUTHAMPTON

ONE of the Hampshire Stokenchurches, satirised in PG Wodehouse's 1935 novel Burst Scrotums On High, Darius was born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

But Darius squandered his late father's fortune to fund an addiction to the designer drug Knee.

In a 2001 C4 documentary, called On Our Knees, he was seen selling stolen orphanage crutches to fund his habit.

In 2005, he came into a second fortune, after the death of his Uncle Octavius, and is currently engaged on another lengthy debauch dressed, for some reason, as Santa.

WHO DO YOU THINK YOU AAAARGH!

Shoplifter: I don't want to end up on Jeremy Kyle

A SHOPLIFTER who stole a crate of Stella lager told magistrates: "If I don't sort my life out I'll end up on JEREMY KYLE!"

Sam Miller, 20, was already drunk when he walked out of the corner shop with the crate of 24 lager bottles on his shoulder.

Magistrates at Bridgend, South Wales, heard it was Miller's 20th criminal conviction including one for burglary.

But the court also heard he has quit drinking, helped set up a college radio station and "sorted his life out" in the last three months.

And he said the fear of appearing on the ITV show losted by Jezza (above) made him change his ways.

Miller told magistrates: "My life wasn't going anywhere, I was drinking at the time and getting into trouble.

"Basically I didn't want to end up on Jeremy Kyle or something like that."

Miller, of Bridgend, admitted the theft of the Stella Artois lager valued at £27.

He will be sentenced in April.

FESTIVE

WHY doesn't Santa have any children? He only comes once a year...and that's down a chimney.

Guitar attacker faces the music

A THUG has been jailed for attacking his pal with a BASS GUITAR!

Martin Edwards, 29, picked up the heavy Fender guitar after rowing with pal Mark Fairbrass on October 10 2011 – smashing him twice in the face during a drunken fight.

Canterbury Crown Court heard last week how the former friends had been drinking at Fairbrass's flat in Herne Bay, Kent, when he asked Edwards to leave.

Jobless Edwards flipped picking up his victim's bass guitar and smashed it in his face, breaking his nose and causing extensive injuries to his face.

He also punched and kicked Fairbrass, 43, who was left with a six-inch scar on his head.

In jailing Edwards for four-and-a-half years, Judge Heather Norton told him: "This was a ferocious attack. You subjected him to a sustained attack and smashed him in the head and face with the guitar."

BIG BANGERS!

Family history fan discovered great-great gran was famous Victorian hooker

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

WHEN Alan Phillips watched his hero, comedian John Bishop, trace his family tree on BBC1 series Who Do You Think You Are? he decided to investigate his own ancestry.

Now, he wishes he hadn't bothered.

For lurking in the dusty parish records and yellowing newspaper reports was a ghastly family secret – his great-great granny Eunice Grice was a PROSTITUTE!

What's more, Eunice was not any old Victorian vice girl – she was the notorious 19th century courtesan who went by the name of TITTY TARA!

Alan, 26, from Preston, Lancs, said: "I never had any interest in family history before. To be honest, I never knew who my father was – that's not strange around here, though.

"But when I saw that John Bishop off the telly looking into his roots, I thought I'd give it a go."

Unsure of his paternity, Alan looked into his mother's branch of the family and uncovered nothing more exotic than a pair of costermongers and a knocker-upper.

Then he discovered Eunice lurking in the tangled roots of his family tree. With a little cross-checking thanks to the Public Records Office and trawling through back numbers of late 19th century newspapers, he finally found the awful truth.

Fitter Alan said: "I discovered Eunice had several convictions for petty soliciting in the 1860s, and then she appears to have gone to London where she went among the great and the good selling her arse.

"She was even linked to the then Prince of Wales – later Edward VII – and caused a scandal when pictures of her balancing Royal teacups on her breasts appeared in a French art pamphlet.

"Later she moved back to Preston and became a Methodist, the tart!"

PAST CARING: Alan (above) found trollop Titty Tara was his great-great-granny

BASHED: Alan wishes he hadn't followed his telly hero John Bishop (left)

The sexy star plays aspiring actress Penny in the E4 show, who is pals with a group of nerds.

And we'd put on thick specs and half-mast trousers if it meant being able to share a sofa with Kaley, 27.

The gorgeous Yank, who popped out at a recent bash in Los Angeles, says she keeps her hot body trim through horse riding.

Kaley revealed: "I work muscles I don't use otherwise – my legs, butt, core. Everything is sore!"

Monster 20 foot 'fatberg' causes Croydon chaos

A MASSIVE 20ft-deep lump of congealed cooking fat had to be dug out of a drain after blocking a manhole and causing a huge water overflow.

The monster 'fatberg' – almost the height of a two-storey building – took three days to clear from below the streets of Croydon, south London.

Bosses from Thames Water said they were 'horrified' at the humungous lump of fat, which they described as a 'six-metre column of congealed cooking fat'.

Workers had to dig it out after it caused a huge drain blockage, causing waste water to spill all over the main road. Businesses in the area had to mop up swathes of 'stinking water' for three days.

Local Richard Sutherland, 41, said: "It is truly disgusting to think this monstrous thing was lurking just below the street.

"The smell was absolutely horrid."

The drain is located between two fast food shops, Pizza Go Go and Tasty Chicken, but Thames Water said it would be 'impossible' to find who was responsible for the fat.

FOOTIN' HELL! Brave Xiao looks unlikely to get into those new slippers, either

A CHINESE teenager faces a series of agonising operations – just so he can wear a pair of FLIP FLOPS.

Youngster Xiao Meng Weixin, 14, suffers from an acute and rare case of congenital neurofibromatosis which causes his feet and toes to swell up like BALLOONS.

His family were too poor to pay for treatment and his feet have grown bigger and bigger with age.

Young Xiao's right foot has become so large it's bent back on itself – and his toes have swelled to the size of oranges.

In place of shoes he has been wearing denim cloth wrapped around his Elephant Man-like appendages.

Useless

But they've proved next to useless to protect against the harsh winter weather in the Guangxi Zhuang region, an autonomous province on China's southern border with Vietnam.

But now medics at the Shanghai Children's Hospital have said they will operate on Xiao for FREE after a successful media campaign.

Doctors will first cut away excess growth on his feet before allowing for six months' recovery.

A hospital spokesman said: "He will end up with much smaller feet and he'll certainly have to learn to walk again.

"But all he's looking forward to now is putting on a pair of flip flops."

Tranny perv escapes jail once again

A PINT-sized transvestite has been hauled in front of a judge for the FIFTEENTH time for dressing up as an old lady in a desperate bid to fondle women.

Crafty Paul Reed had been banned from wearing his elderly disguise to prey on unsuspecting woman following a string of sex offences.

But five-foot Reed, 51, was in court once again after he used his creepy disguise to get close to a young woman at a bus station.

Reed, from Chatham, Kent, was caught out when his distressed victim looked him up online and found he had breached his court order 14 TIMES.

He appeared before Canterbury Crown Court and was warned he will face jail if he breaches the order again. But was told he can cross-dress – as long as he only talks to women he knows.

Judge Michael O'Sullivan said: "He can dress as a woman, he has a right to dress as a woman. What he must not do is try to bring himself into the trust of females."

He was given nine months' prison suspended for two years.

IN THE KNOW WITH MIKE STARR

BRITAIN'S No.1 SHOWBIZ COLUMN

THERE won't be many presents around the tree at NUFFY TILE'S luxury pad in Antrobus this year...because the bastard's burned down!

Mystery surrounds the blaze – which was seen as far away as Comberbach – though it may have had something to do with Nuffy's attempt at home electrics.

I'm told inspectors at VALE ROYAL COUNCIL are taking a close interest, especially after that debacle with the waterwheel last Candlemass.

LITTLE Christmas cheer in the Devon village of Upper Hole, thanks to the hamlet's new residents – DEATH GORE!

The Lucifer-rock fourpiece have settled in the Old Rectory, which the cheeky scamps have already renamed the Old Rectum-Bleed.

Parish council chairman HECTOR GOLIGHTLY has promised to "have a word", though the word he thinks lead singer MAUL HELLFIRE is a "lovely chap".

LAST minute jitters at the BELLE END THEATRE SCHOOL Christmas panto thanks to a poorly donkey – and an even poorlier Head of Dance.

The school, famed as the alma mater of DRY DOCK TERRACE star GINNY TRUSS, always uses a real ass in the show but this year the usual donkey has a case of asinine measles.

Worst of all, boss dance tutor TARQUIN RUFFLE has been "unwell" after the departure of his life partner JULIAN NONSS for a position in Berlin.

TALKING of men who are "good with colours", flamboyant NEVILLE FLOUNCE caused a right hoo-ha at the DAVENHAM FESTIVE SHOW.

Colourful Nev misheard the show's compere DAVE GRUFF announcing the arrival of "mince pies".

Nev thought Dave had accused him of "mincing by" and the ensuing scuffle led to several jugs of mulled wine being upset all over the orphans.

SORRY to cast a sombre note on your Christmas cheer but it's my sad duty to inform you that former LITTLE SECRET drummer SID FINGER has suffered a serious accident.

Details are sketchy but I'm told that he skidded on some ice while carrying a bowl of custard for some lonely pensioners and tumbled into a culvert.

He was stuck in a grating for three hours and when he was finally tugged out by a passing Community Warden.

See more Mike Starr @sundaysport.com

I CAN'T wait to get my mouth around a big juicy one on December 25 – that's right, it's time for yummy Christmas pudding!

I love it when the flames are licking the sides of the boozy bonanza – and I'm licking my lips in anticipation.

I'll just have to make sure I don't scoff too much turkey and roast potatoes first, so I have plenty of room left.

THIS IS WHY XMAS BINGE DRINKING IS BAD

Phil woke with hangover...and Savile tattoo

TATT'S NOT FUNNY: Phil with his Savile inking

WHEN Phil Thomas woke the morning after his works Xmas bash he had a throbbing head, a bandaged leg...and very little memory of what happened the night before.

But there was worse to come...much worse!

For when he looked under the dressing that covered his calf, the 32-year-old stockbroker found he'd had a tattoo of JIMMY SAVILE inked on his leg.

Batchelor Phil, of Balham, south London, shuddered: "We knocked off work at about midday and took off up west for a big drink up.

"I know Squiffy Peters and Thumpy Johnson from Predergast and Delaney were there – and you know what they're like – so after about three in the afternoon, it all became a bit of a blur.

"To be quite honest with you, I have no idea how I got home. And I certainly have no idea how I ended up with a tattoo of Jimmy Savile on my leg.

"I do know that about £3K has gone out of my bank account and that I am very angry indeed. I mean, what responsible tattoo artist would tattoo a clearly-drunk man?

"Jesus, what is the country coming to?"

Stars of Xmas Day special TOPLESS

DOWNTOPS ABBEY!

By ALICE WALKER neil@sundaysport.co.uk

IF the plotlines of period drama Downton Abbey weren't enough to keep you happy here are SIX of the cast with their boobs out!

The hit show is the jewel in ITV1's crown during the festive TV schedule and this one-off special is set to be a ratings smash with millions tuning in.

But what viewers won't see are the assets of the totty who play the upper class toffs and their maids.

Elizabeth McGovern, 51, who plays the Countess of Grantham, flashed in 1984's Once Upon A Time In America.

Phyllis Logan, 56, who plays Mrs Hughes, stripped in 1983's Another Time, Another Place.

Dame Maggie Smith, 77, who stars as the Dowager Countess of Grantham, was bared in 2003's My House In Umbria.

Penelope Wilton, 66, who plays Isobel Crawley, showed her assets in Calendar Girls in the same year.

MyAnna Buring, 27, who is set to appear in the Christmas Special, peeled off for City Rats in 2009.

And Phoebe Nicholls, 60, – also new for Christmas – flashed in Blade On The Feather back in 1980.

See Downton Abbey on Christmas Day, ITV1 at 8.45pm

DONNA'S PICK OF THE WEEK

I'LL be there when the doors open for the Boxing Day sales, but I'll be back home thoughly shopped-out in time for Doors Open (ITV1, 9pm).

It looks like a cracking crime caper, and since it's based on an Ian Rankin book it's bound to be good.

Stephen Fry's in as a mastermind behind a gang planning an audacious heist, swapping priceless works of art with fake paintings.

You'll be rooting for them, but it all starts going wrong and pretty soon they find themselves painted into a corner, making for a tense climax – the kind I love best!

BOOBS ON THE BOX

Britain's only NAKED TV guide with SIMON DEAN

ITV1 11.15pm, Atonement
ALTHOUGH not strictly speaking boobs out, you can see enough through Keira Knightley's wet petticoat to enjoy one over the thumb.

C4 10.30pm, The Girl With The Dragon Tattoo
THE original, and some would say the best, adaptation. In Swedish and starring Noomi Rapace, who is much closer to Lisbeth Salader as I imagine her. Aaaahh.

5USA 11pm, Lethal Weapon
IT may be a bit dark but there's just enough light to see Jackie Swanson's boobs – as she plunges to her death at just two minutes.

EVA'S PICK OF THE DAY

SINCE I'm from Poland I'm always keen to see others from my country doing well, so I'll be tuning in to watch Tim Burton's Alice in Wonderland (BBC1, 6.50pm), which stars the lovely Mia Wasikowska.

OK, so she's actually Australian-born of Polish parents, but she's still a beauty. The fact that Johnny Depp's in the film helps too, of course!

BOOBS ON THE BOX

Britain's only NAKED TV guide with SIMON DEAN

C4 10pm, Dorian Gray

Sky Comedy 11pm, The 40-Year-Old Virgin
LAURA Bottrell whips out a wonderfully heavy-looking pair at 21mins.

CHARLENE'S PICK OF THE DAY

I THINK I'll be stuffed in just about every way by the time we get to today's viewing, but I'm sure I'll have enough stamina left for a good old laugh at a comedy.

So I'll be looking forward to watching Panto (ITV1, 9pm) for a chuckle with a traditional theme.

The film after it looks good, too. I may not move from the sofa all evening!

CAPTION CONTEST

WIN £50

THIS WEEK

WELL, thanks to the Christmas post you had to be snappy with your entries for last week's Caption Contest.

And you certainly got your teeth into the contest!

This week's winner is Richard Webber of Bristol with: "That's the last time I order anything from Amazon!"

There's £50 on the way, Richard – cheers!

John Deane, Penzance, sent us: "Fing hell! I'm in shit croc!"

R McArthur, Dunoon, tried: "I thought the sign said the beach was full of COCKS!"

Marie Gallen, from Worcester, made us laugh with: "Hey, it's Crocodile Done-Knee"

Jack Snelling, from Clacton-on-Sea, sent in: "All I said was, 'See you later, alligator!' "

Phil Chater, from Stourbridge, played a blinder with: "Bloody hell – no, I didn't say I wanted to feel your CROC come on your leg!"

David Jeffs, of Rochdale, tried: "Shit – that's the last time I wear a pair of crocs on my holiday!"

I Kilday, of Bolton: "I'm crocked!"

Now it's YOUR turn to see if you can win £50 with your cunning and wit.

Just come up with a caption for the pic on the left, fill in the coupon below, and send it to: Caption Contest, C/O Sunday Sport, City View House, 5 Union Street, Manchester M12 4JD.

PSYCHOLOGISTS say the colour red helps to stimulate energy and can increase blood flow.

And just looking at these sensational new photos of Kaylee Carver is sure to get any fella's blood up!

Curvy Kaylee, 24, says she buys ANYTHING with red on it – from her underwear and duvet cover to kitchen furniture and even her new car!

By JESSICA HAWORTH
jessica@sundaysport.co.uk

The 30F model is about to quit her flat in Hull for sunnier climes this winter.

Kaylee told us: "Hull is underrated and it's honestly a great place to live.

"But the British weather does my head in, which is why I'm going to fly somewhere nice and warm – the sooner the better.

"It's always nice, especially all those nudist beaches.

"And I never go RED-faced baring-all in public – so long as the sun is shining!"

Compo for woman hurt during wild sex on job!

A WOMAN who was injured while having sex in her hotel room during a work trip has won compensation – after a bizarre FIVE YEAR legal wrangle.

A court dismissed an appeal from the woman's former employer, which argued that having sex during a work trip had nothing to do with her job.

However, the court ruled that if she had been injured while playing a game of cards in her hotel room she would be entitled to compensation and the fact that the woman was "engaged in sexual activity rather than some other lawful recreational activity while in her hotel room does not lead to any different result".

The woman, who worked for Australian workplace health insurer Comcare, claimed for facial and psychological injuries suffered when a glass light fitting came away from the wall above the bed as she was having sex in November 2007.

She had arranged to meet a male friend who lived in the town. They went for dinner then went back to her hotel.

The male friend said in his statement at the time that they were "going hard" and he did not know if they bumped the light or it just fell off.

'It's my right to bonk donkeys'

A DONKEY sex suspect is claiming it is his constitutional right to shag animals.

Carlos Romero (above) was nicked after he was allegedly found fingering a miniature donkey called Doodle and rubbing his tackle up against her while pulling his pud.

The farmhand, 32, later admitted in a jail cell interview he'd had sex with horses "many times" since he was 18.

And now, ahead of his trial in Florida, his lawyers have filed papers urging a judge to declare the state laws forbidding bestiality unconstitutional.

They argue that the law encroaches on his rights.

Romero previously rejected a deal that would have required probation, a fine, a psychosexual evaluation and STD tests.

STILL stuck for what to get your dad for Christmas?

Well, how about a £1,690 BUTT PLUG with matching CUFFLINKS?

The Lelo Earl Gold Plated Gentleman's Butt Plug and Cufflinks Set is probably the most unusual gift ever to come out of Santa's sack.

The set, on sale from upscale sex shop Coco de Mer is described thus: "The most distinguished Gentleman's Butt Plug in the world, the Lelo Earl is beautifully sculpted to offer intense pleasure.

"Crafted from 18 carat gold, it's a beauty to behold and it feels sensational against the skin, offering exciting prospects for temperature play.

"A perfectly balanced anal sex toy with a top-heavy structure and contoured form for firm and fulfilling stimulation that expertly lavishes its attention on the prostate.

"Detailed with a finger loop for complete control over the angle of stimulation and to prevent further travel during wear.

"Weighing a handsome 225g, the Lelo Earl is best suited to fans of firm pressure and rigid anal toys.

"Presented in a beautiful gift box along with a pair of matching gold plated Lelo cufflinks, an instruction manual, satin storage pouch and a polishing cloth."

Son forces mum, 100, make home in a pigsty

THE world's WORST son has been slammed by critics for making his 100-year-old mum live in a PIGSTY!

But farmer Chen Shoutian says his unnamed mother LOVES living in the cramped shack she shares with a 30-stone sow.

Others aren't convinced, however, and after the elderly lady's plight was covered by a local TV news broadcaster, he has faced a barrage of criticism.

Chen, who lives in a six-bedroom house in Guanyun, China, said: "She wants to stay there because she feels it is convenient. I'd have no problem in it."

Other relations were less impressed.

Liu Zhanbing, her grandson, said: "It's so smelly that it is impossible to even go inside. I couldn't live with that."

And Chen's sister, Gu Yuqing, said she tried unsuccessfully to rescue her mother from the pigsty.

"There were flies and mosquitoes. It broke my heart.

"She's so old yet had to live with pigs! How can we not feel sad?"

The pressure has forced Chen to relent and the woman has moved out of her pigsty home of three years.

Killer 'too fat' to be executed

A CONVICTED killer has been spared the death sentence – for being TOO FAT!

Ronald Post, 53, who nearly doubled his weight whilst incarcerated, was scheduled to die by lethal injection next month.

The American killer has been on death row since murdering Helen Vantz, a motel clerk, during a robbery in 1983.

Governor of Ohio John Kasich ruled that he would be allowed to live to minimise suffering in death.

Post, weighs more than 32 stones and his lawyers argued that he would face 'a torturous and lingering death' as executioners struggled to find a vein.

Post will noe face life imprisonment for the killing of Vantz with no chance of parole.

PEANUT BATTER

GONESE Kaukwe, 73, was hacked to death by her grandson when she scolded him for nicking a PEANUT from a cake she was making in Maronga, Zimbabwe.

FIRST TIME

JESS: So, when did you lose your virginity?
NIKKI: I was 16 and it was with a lad I knew from school. He was the fit one in my year and I'd fancied him for years.

He asked me out right at the end of term and we went on a few dates before we decided to take the plunge. Looking back now I was so pleased to be going out with the fittest boy in school that I pretended I was really into him even though he was really boring.

His parents were out so he invited me round to his house to do the deed. He was really nice and well-spoken but when he reached the point of climax he started shouting and screaming and yelling "fk" and other swear words over and over again. It was really off-putting!
JESS: Oh no! Did you dump him?
NIKKI: Yes I did. I'm all for a bit of dirty talk but I couldn't stand that!
JESS: Mine's nowhere near as interesting as yours I'm afraid. I was with my fella for a few months and I was nearly 17.

I had really fallen for him and I was totally disappointed. I thought maybe that was what it was meant to be like and I was gutted. It wasn't until I slept with someone else that I realised it was him who was rubbish.

WILLY SIZE

NIKKI: Do you think size matters?
JESS: Yes. My first boyfriend had a really small willy and that's part of the reason why the sex was so bad.

I feel bad saying it but it was just too small to be any good. Obviously, I didn't realise it at the time. Now I know better!
NIKKI: I know what you mean. Whenever I sleep with a new guy I'm always gutted if they haven't got a big one!
JESS: I reckon a really big one would be a bit scary though, surely it would hurt.
NIKKI: Nah, the bigger the better I say!

I just like being able to control the rhythm and sitting up makes it deep and you can feel everything more. That's pretty much the only way I can orgasm.
NIKKI: Really? I can climax in any of them!

BUM FUN

NIKKI: What do you think of anal sex? I tried it once and I wasn't really into it. It didn't really do it for me.
JESS: I must admit I didn't think I would like it but I really did. I only do it with someone I felt really comfortable with though. The first time I did it was with a lad I hadn't been seeing for long and he only went and told all his mates.
NIKKI: No! You're joking?
JESS: I wish I was! I was mortified. I swore then that I would never do it again unless I was in a long term relationship. It was a shame as well because I liked it!

ONE-NIGHTERS

NIKKI: Ever had a one-night stand?
JESS: Of course! I've had several since I've been at uni. I never plan them it just seems to happen when I've had a few and I start feeling randy.
NIKKI: Me too. I know some people don't approve but who cares. I am young, free and single so why shouldn't I?

I love the thrill of bonking a fella for the first time when you don't know what it's going to be like. Sometimes I've been really wild with them.
JESS: I've got quite a high sex drive so when I'm gagging for it I can't help myself. We're only young once so why shouldn't we make the most of it?

THREESOMES

NIKKI: Have you ever had a threesome?
JESS: No. I've often fantasised about it but I haven't ever had the opportunity really. How about you?
NIKKI: Unfortunately not. I'd definitely be up for it though – I'm just waiting for the right opportunity to come along. I've seen a lot of really fit girls around Uni who I'd be up for doing it with!

BEST SEX

JESS: What's the best sex you've ever had?
NIKKI: It was with my best mate's brother! I really fancied him but she couldn't stand the thought of us getting it on.

Every time I went round there he used to make excuses to talk to me and I could tell he liked me.

One day I went round and she was out and he just grabbed me and dragged me into his bedroom.

It was amazing, we were both so turned on. We didn't even take our clothes off, he just pushed my knickers to one side and we did it standing up leaning against the door.
JESS: You dirty cow! Mine was on holiday with a bloke I met.

He was a Cypriot waiter and he hardly spoke any English but it didn't matter. He had a big willy and he was just the best ever at oral sex.

Seriously, he was out of this world. I had multiple orgasms like I've never had before!
NIKKI: Did you see him again?
JESS: Yeah, we spent every spare minute bonking for the rest of my holiday.

He was proper cheesy – he told me he was falling in love with me! I think he felt like he had to tell me that to get me into bed.

Obviously he was always at it with holidaymakers but I didn't care – it was just amazing sex.

"We spent every spare minute bonking – it was amazing sex!"

ORAL SEX

JESS: What are your views on oral sex?
NIKKI: Giving or receiving?
JESS: Both!
NIKKI: Well, obviously I prefer receiving but I actually don't mind giving blow jobs. I know some girls hate it but it doesn't really bother me. I've had quite a lot of practice and you know what they say – practice makes perfect!
JESS: I know what you mean. I think if you want a man to go down on you then you should at least return the favour.

But I must say there is nothing worse than a man who can't do it properly. It can be the most amazing thing in the world if they are good at it.

FAVE POSITION

JESS: What's your favourite position?
NIKKI: I don't really have one but I'll try anything. What about you?
JESS: I must admit I'm a bit boring, I prefer being on top. I've tried loads but none of them were as good as that.

Dear Krystal,

I'M a plumber and a couple of months ago I went to a house with a blocked toilet.

The owner was a tasty blonde sort in her 30s.

After I'd fixed the bog she came on to me and asked could she pay the bill with sex.

I agreed and she got my knob and sucked me off while I sat on her loo.

She then led me to her bedroom and I boned her up the arse while I put a dildo in her fanny.

The problem is that she now expects me to do lots of jobs for her in return for sex and it's costing me work.

What should I do?

KF , Essex

Krystal says...

TELL her to bog off!

Dear Krystal,

I PULLED a bird last week who looks just like top singer Charlotte Church.

Far from having "The Voice of Angel", this girl was broad Geordie.

But I had no trouble translating when she said: "I'll give you a blowjob in the bogs, bonny lad."

Now she wants to see me regularly but I'm not sure about the accent.

What do you think?

RF, Bristol

Krystal says...

IT hardly matters when her gob is clamped round your knob.

Dear Krystal,

THE new neighbours of ours have turned out to be a right randy pair.

They seemed like a nice quite couple when they moved in but since then I've seen and heard lots of shagging involving other couples.

I've even found a "swingers" website where they advertise for sex.

I'd like to get involved as the missus is a bit of a dried-up old hag.

Do you think it's wise or a bit close to home?

GT, Kent

Krystal says...

IF you involve the missus as well, it should be OK.

Dear Krystal,

I'M a builder and a few weeks ago I was doing a job in a posh part of town.

This gorgeous redhead answered the door wearing just a skimpy nightdress.

She was very friendly, explaining that her husband was away a lot on business and she felt bored and frustrated.

She kept bringing me tea and chatting and I caught several glances of her huge tits when she picked up the cups.

Then she let the nightie slide apart and I got a full-on flash of her juicy ginger minge.

It was obvious that she was up for a shag so I downed tools and made a grab for her.

She soon had my pants down and my cock deep in her gob. Then we went to her bedroom and I fed her for hours.

Now she reckons she's pregnant and that I'm the dad.

What should I do?

GR, South Tyneside

Krystal says...

IF you are the father then you'll have to do what she wants you to.

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

een learner drives ne wild on lessons

Dear Krystal,

I'M a driving instructor and over the years I've shagged quite a few of my stunning female pupils.

And recently I've been on a great roll.

There's a blonde 18-year-old student who made it clear she was well up for it when she started her lessons.

She would wear really short skirts and low-cut tops showing off her lovely tits.

The way she stroked the handbrake really turned me on – and she knew it.

At the end of one lesson she drove to a quiet car park.

When she stopped she took off her top, undid my pants and started tugging on my dick.

She gave me the best blowjob I've ever had.

Then she climbed on the back seat and slipped her knickers off revealing her slippery wet pussy.

I took her doggy-style and she loved it, wriggling and squealing in pleasure as she reached orgasm.

Tremendous

Since then we've ended all her lessons with a shag.

I've also been humping another pupil. She's 25, dark-haired with massive boobs.

After her third lesson she invited me back to her house.

As soon as we got through the door she dragged me upstairs and started to suck my knob while gently stroking my balls — which I just love.

She stopped just as I was about to climax and then began riding me like a racehorse.

It was tremendous watching her enormous tits bouncing around as she slid up and down my shaft.

Next she gave me a real treat when she got me on all fours and started licking around my bumhole.

And after that she gave me a titw*nk and then asked me to shoot my juices all over her face.

At the moment I'm also having it off with three more of my pupils including one who only wants anal sex.

I reckon I must have the best job in the world.

What do you think?

LR, Bolton

IT definitely appears the be a case of "mirror, signal, get your leg over" with you.

Dear Krystal,

I LIVE with my mum and love her very much.

But she's got herself a new fella and I fancy him.

He's 33 – 13 years older than me and 10 years younger than my mum.

A couple of weeks ago I was going to a party a but it was a disaster so I left.

I couldn't get cab so I rang home. My mum's boyfriend said she was in bed so he agreed to pick me up.

I knew what he had in mind and when he parked up near where I live he got his cock out and I sucked him off, then he fed me on the back seat.

Since then we've had sex loads of times but I feel guilty about my mum.

What should I do?

SL, East Midlands

Krystal says...

YOU have to stop this before your mum finds out.

Dear Krystal,

I STARTED a new job recently and I'm already sleeping with my boss.

I'm 22, blonde with a big pair of tits and he's 35.

He shagged me on my second day. He asked me to come into his office and told me to bend over his desk.

I felt so horny as he stuck his eight-incher into me.

We have sex every day and last week one of the directors and my boss took me to a posh country hotel where they spit-roasted me.

It felt brilliant having two cocks in me at once.

They have now promised me promotion if I shag them and two other directors.

I'm tempted but don't want to get a reputation as being "easy".

What should I do?

ML, Herts

Krystal says...

JUST do it and make sure you get your promotion!

Dear Krystal,

MY boyfriend has told me that spunk is supposed to be very good for your skin.

I'm 23 and I do still get the odd pimple.

So every night last week I sucked his love-missile until he was ready to shoot his load all over my chops.

I wasn't too keen at first but I soon got in to the swing of things and really started to enjoy doing it.

The problem is, I'm as spotty as ever – but he's never been happier.

What do you reckon?

HR, Suffolk

Krystal says...

IT can't do any harm.

SEX CONFIDENTIAL

TOM WANTS CASUAL-TY SEX WITH BIG-BOOBED NURSE

Krystal says...

WELL done you for going to the surgery and getting yourself checked over. Too many people these days don't bother to look after their health and it costs the NHS a lot of money in the long term.

That said, having an affair with the practice nurse is always a bad idea – even though nurses are very horny indeed.

Not only could the nurse get rapped by the Nursing and Midwifery Council for engaging in an inappropriate relationship with a patient, you could end up ill – as nurses spend a lot of time with poorly people.

If you are finding it hard to resist, just remind yourself that nurses spend a lot of their time with their fingers up other men's bottoms.

Lag caught sodomising a fellow con in kennels!

A PRISON inmate's hopes of parole were well and truly buggered when he was caught BUMMING a fellow prisoner in a DOG KENNEL.

Morgan Ruzvidzo reckoned he could get a discharge from prison in time for Christmas, after serving a six-year jail term, but now he's facing more time in lockup.

Ruzvidzo, 40, and Marceline Kadungure, 22, were not asked to plead when they appeared before Harare, Zimbabwe magistrates charged with aggravated indecent assault.

The pair were remanded in custody until the New Year.

The incident occurred at the prison farm in Highlands, Harare.

The court heard that a prison officer was carrying out routine security checks at around 12pm noticed that the dog kennel was not locked.

The court heard that when he peeped inside the kennel he saw Ruzvidzo in the process of sodomising Kadungure.

He immediately informed the officer in charge who then reported the pair to police, leading to their arrest.

'Miss' banned for sex antics

A TEACHER has been banned from the classroom for letting 12-year-old lads play with her boobs and finger her private parts.

Dog-rough Cheryl Grampa (above), 46, can no longer teach in the state of Florida after at least one boy was found touching her breasts and vaginal area, according to investigators.

She "engaged in inappropriate conduct and contact with a student", said a spokesman for her school in Cooper City.

That conduct ranged from "soliciting and allowing students to massage her, in exchange for rewards and allowing students to touch her in an inappropriate manner".

A fellow teacher said: "Hell, I wouldn't touch her with yours!"

WAS on a bus (lazyLAD) when an old codger managed to walk out of the public library just as the bus arrived. He did a small fist pump celebration and boarded.

MY 7.5/10 girlfriend has a nice little collection of toys and mucky stuff from using in the bedroom. And one night while in bed she noticed her favourite dildo had gone missing from her secret place. This ruined the moment as she panicked and worried about her parents finding it. About a month later my girlfriend found the sex toy in a shoe box under her 6-year-old brother's bed who'd put it in there with a load of shredded newspaper – thinking it was some kind of animal!

*GeniusLAD

CURRENTLY stood on the busiest train you have ever seen. The doors opened and there is literally a wall of people blocking it. One guy squeezes past and opens the toilet door and stands there in loads of space and announces: "Always room in there. And it's got a seat!"

*AlwaysThinkingLAD

SUNDAY was the christening of my godson (littleLAD). After partying until 1am on Monday morning we moved on to the kebab shop – who sell tins of beer. Once we all bought a can the owner turned his CD player up full blast so we all had a party in the kebab shop.

ME and the missus had a massive argument. I won by putting her in the wardrobe, to put her in her place.

WENT to my local GP, as I've got a bad back, and he asked, "how long are you stiff for in the morning?" I look him straight in the eye then burst out laughing.

SINCE I've been at university I've been with three girls. The first I got as far as a handjob. The second

IN the club last night and chatting to a 6/10 (7/10 after a few more drinks). Being a gentlemen I kept a fart in for quite a while as I don't want to scare her off. Unfortunately it slips out, and it was horrible. Her facial expression changed from smiling to disgust in three seconds. Then my mate (wingLAD) who had been next to us, turned round and said, "Sorry – it was me".

*ThankYouWingLAD

AT a house party and I met this LAD coming down the stairs, buttoning up his jeans. He said: "I told her I'm away to the toilet to piss but really I can't get it up 'cause I'm so drunk – there's an 8/10 upstairs gagging for it, mate. First door on the left!" Got a lucky shag after a dry season because of him.

*GenerousDrunkenLAD

AWKWARD moment when the sergeant major walks in on you fully naked decorating a christmas tree.

*ToughOneToExplainLAD

I'M a Brit working in Australia and recently got a job where they have a coffee maker. Really struggled doing all the different drinks and getting the milk correct for the customers. But outside where I work is a guy selling the Big Issue magazine and trying to sort his life out. Turns out he used to work in a cafe and he's been teaching me through the little window how to make different coffees, as the boss is a dumbLAD. So to say thanks I pay for a coffee for him every morning and buy a copy of his mag every week to help a fellow struggling LAD. Haven't seen him for a few weeks so hoping he's sorted out.

*HelpEachOtherOutLADs

BEEN after this bird for a while now and convinced her to head to mine at 12.30am. When asked why I wouldn't make the 20 mile trip to hers I replied: "I play better in my home stadium and like to get a decent result before bagging away goals." Solid result at home. Waiting for my away game now.

*StillWaitingLAD

My BestLAD just got home from six months of travelling. He was surprised to see me and his dad had transformed their garage into a man cave. We've just started a first to 1,001 pool frame challenge.

DOG LEADS BY MICK LIVESEY

Toon to take BAGS crown

THIS year will go down as a great success for the sport and without doubt one of the main reasons for that is the fantastic BAGS Track Championship.

Greyhounds from 18 BAGS tracks by the end of the day will have chased £160,000 in total prize-money from this competition alone.

We are down to six finalists who do battle today at Perry Barr in Birmingham over 10 races. The action will be screened live in betting shops nationwide but if you can get yourself there, it promises to be a cracker.

THE FINALISTS

Belle Vue — 14-1 Paddy Power

They have done remarkably well to make it to the final. We backed them to win their group but this looks tough. I'm a Lancashire lad but sentiment never paid the bills any place other than 6th will be a success. 14/1 Paddy Power

Hove — 5-1 William Hill

A powerful team who are the main dangers to Newcastle. Any team that includes the name Cahill in the line-up warrants massive respect. Hove have strength in depth and I feel they are overpriced. The lack of a trial for top bitch Seals Babe may prove the difference between being champions and runners-up.

Monmore — 3-1 Bet365

Last year's champions have been installed as favourites to retain the title. Perhaps it's an advantage that they raced at Perry Barr in the heats stage. They have some quality dogs and trainers but others are fancied on the day.

Newcastle — 7-2 Stan James

Ian Walton's a real nice guy but he is also a quality judge. He thinks his Toon Army can march into Perry Barr and take this magnificent trophy back to the North East. When you look at the team it's packed with quality and interestingly made up of a very strong Scottish contingent. I'm hearing big support is expected and many fans will be making the long journey. Ian is confident he can deliver the goods.

Peterborough — 7-1 Paddy Power

Another team that did us a massive favour when winning their group. I have huge respect for top trainer David Pruhs and the rest of the team. It's going to be tough but again you would have to say they are overpriced. It would not be the biggest upset ever if the Posh were to do the business.

Swindon — 5-1 William Hill

Many people's dark horses for the competition. You have to respect them as again it's a team that is packed with quality. Kevin Hutton is a man in great form at the moment and anything he touches seems to turn to gold. I'd not put anyone off backing them but they need a slice of luck.

VERDICT

It would have to be Newcastle for me. The 7-2 with Stan James looks too big.

I spoke to one of the best trainers in the country and a star for Newcastle, Jimmy Wright. He told me: "This competition has been fantastic, all the trainers and racing office have got right behind it. It's been a massive team effort and many people have been involved for us to get to this stage.

"If we do everything right we can win it – you need that bit of luck but we will be trying our best.

"If I was to give your readers a winner our best chances are Kielduff College, Patterdale Jazz trained by Craig Dawson, has been the star of the competition for me and Liosgarbh Champ for Gary Carmichael – his form is outstanding.

"It all depends on the day but we are confident and look forward to seeing you there."

PERRY BARR SELECTIONS

There are ten heats in the final with £50,000 in prize money up for grabs. Points for the final will be 1st 10 points, 2nd 7pts, 3rd 5pts, 4th 3pts, 5th 2pts and 6th 1pt.

- 14.38 Remix T2 (Newcastle)
- 14.57 Patterdale Jazz T5 (Newcastle)
- 15.13 Guinness T6 Wild (Hove)
- 15.29 Liosgarbh Champ T4 (Newcastle)

MATCHWINNER: Eoin Morgan

Sixy Morg wins it at the death

CRICKET

JOS BUTTLER praised a "world-class finish from a world-class finisher" as Eoin Morgan hit the last ball for a six to give England an enthralling six-wicket victory over India in the second T20 against India in Mumbai.

It seemed stand-in captain Morgan (49 not out) had left it too late, with three needed to win off the final ball from Ashok Dinda.

But man-of-the-match Morgan kept his cool, striking a perfect blow back over the seamer's head to snatch the win and ensure England draw the two-match series.

"We're really pleased to get that victory. It was a world-class finish from a really world-class finisher in Morgan," said Buttler.

Buttler shared in Morgan's celebrations at the end of the match as he finished unbeaten on 15.

"He was confident and that rubbed off on me," Buttler added.

"It's a great Christmas present. It was a world-class performance from everyone and we're all delighted to get a win."

Michael Lumb hit an important 50 as England successfully chased down India's 177 for eight.

Fantastic

He had some minor early luck, mis-hooking Awana three times in his first over – for a six, a four and a two.

Fellow opener Alex Hales added 42 as the tourists made a bright reply.

And Lumb admitted it was a special way to end England's 2012 programme.

"It was nice to get a few runs, but more importantly to win the game," said a delighted Lumb.

"Morgs at the end there and Jos, to get over the line – they were fantastic.

"It was very special to go home with the win. Well done to the boys to get a win at the end there – very special.

"Morgs has done it before, got us over the line, and he's done it again."

BARNEY STORMS THROUGH

DARTS

RAYMOND VAN BARNEVELD continued his challenge to regain the PDC world title with victory over Brendan Dolan.

Barney cruised through the first two sets but Dolan hit back to take the third.

Five-time champion Van Barneveld edged a crucial fourth set in a deciding leg and took the next 3-1 seal his place in the last 16.

Kevin Painter kept his hopes alive of a maiden world title after beating Ronnie Baxter 4-3 in a dramatic clash.

Baxter took the first two legs of the deciding set but Painter won four in a row to nick it.

Colin Lloyd produced a 10-dart finish to close out a 4-2 victory over Mark Webster.

THE REAL KNOCKOUTS...

IT'S been another wildly exciting year for boxing with some truly memorable moments.

Here, Sunday Sport boxing expert STEVE LILLIS gives his top 10 rounds of personal highlights – and shocking low points from the past 12 months...

ROUND ONE

BIG-TIME England v Scotland fights are pretty rare these days – but Ricky Burns' WBO light-weight title defence against cockney Kevin Mitchell grabbed mainstream attention.

The Scot (above) is getting better with every fight and brushed Mitchell aside in four one-sided rounds.

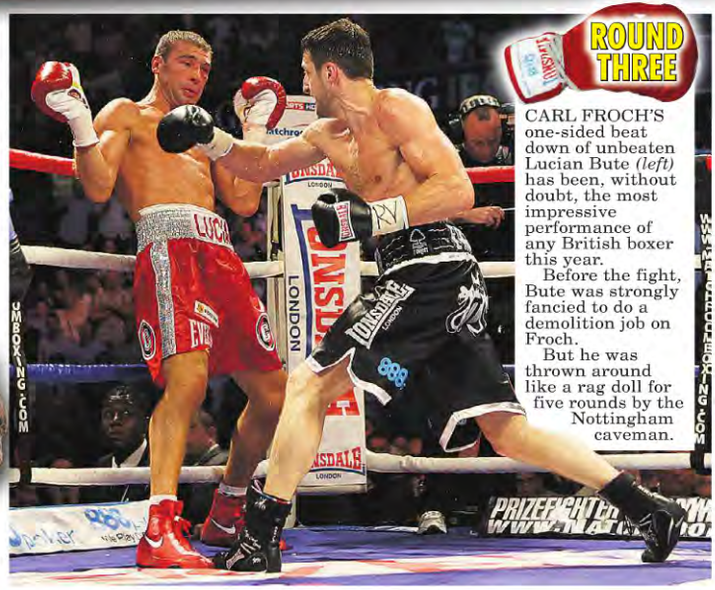

Next year could prove to be a very big one for Burns.

ROUND TWO

THE quality of boxing at the London 2012 Olympic Games was top drawer and the Union Jack was draped proudly at the Excel after finals.

Nicola Adams (above), Luke Campbell and Anthony Joshua all hit the jackpot winning gold medals, while Anthony Ogogo won bronze and Fred Evans landed silver.

ROUND THREE

CARL FROCH'S one-sided beat down of unbeaten Lucian Bute (left) has been, without doubt, the most impressive performance of any British boxer this year.

Before the fight, Bute was strongly fancied to do a demolition job on Froch.

...AND THE

ROUND SIX

MANNY PACQUIAO (right) had been the world's most discussed boxer for years.

But his long career leaping through the weights looks to have finally caught up with him.

The image of the great man laying face down on the canvas in Las Vegas after being sparked by Juan Manuel Marquez a few weeks ago will haunt him for years to come.

ROUND SEVEN

THE saddest night in British boxing for many years was Ricky Hatton's ill-advised comeback fight against Vyacheslav Senchenko.

Our most popular fighter's return last month drew huge attention – but The Hitman was a ghost of his old self and was knocked out in nine rounds.

ROUND EIGHT

SKY SPORTS have made millions out of Ricky Hatton as a pay-per-view attraction in his heyday as a boxer and also during his time as a successful promoter.

Despite that, they ruthlessly axed his shows despite him losing a fortune trying to impress the corporate fat cats.

It was a cold and nasty move and Hatton did not deserve it.

ROUND FOUR

FRANKIE GAVIN is one of the most naturally gifted boxers Britain has ever produced, but his career has limped along.

He showed signs that he might be about to finally fulfil his potential when he beat Junior Witter (pictured) to claim the British welterweight title and 2013 could be a great year for the Brummie.

ROUND FIVE

BRITISH and Commonwealth heavyweight champion David Price's right hand is a match for anybody in the world.

He finally shattered any more big-time aspirations that Audley Harrison held, knocking him out at the Liverpool Echo Arena in a matter of seconds in October.

LOW BLOWS!

ROUND NINE

NOBODY can deny Amir Khan's dazzling hand-speed and footwork, but his chin certainly leaves a lot to be desired.

He was exposed again (left) when he was bombed out inside four very disappointing rounds by unheralded American Danny Garcia.

ROUND TEN

DAVID HAYE and Dereck Chisora disgraced boxing with their press conference brawl (right) following Del's brave points defeat to Vitali Klitschko.

When the Brit pair settled their difference in the ring, Haye won with a power-packed fifth-round KO, but it was a brilliant domestic fight for the ages.

STUPID PUNTS

BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION WITH StanJames.com www.stanjames.co.uk

THE Scotland football team apparently had their Christmas party in a Brazilian restaurant in Glasgow the other night.

Taking that lead I'd imagine Man United, Arsenal and Celtic should have their Xmas do around Wembley stadium.

Because all three of them have no chance of playing there in the Champions League final in May.

United have drawn Madrid and that means the return to Old Trafford of Cristiano Ronaldo.

In many ways the Red Devils without him are a lot like a stripper who doesn't take her knickers off – good to watch but not the same without the c.

Jose Mourinho's side is struggling in La Liga but should get the better of United over two legs.

Celtic have had their glory with a win over the mighty Barcelona in the group stages but they look likely to succumb to an impressive Juventus side.

Arsenal have got Bayern Munich, and if the Gunners are firing on all cylinders they could give the Germans a game.

But as it stands I'm doing amazingly well in my fantasy football league using one rule of thumb – do the opposite of what Arsene Wenger would do. They tore apart a poor looking Reading side last weekend, but defeat to Bradford shows their cracks.

I fancy Bayern to go all the way. They were robbed by Chelsea in last year's final and at 7/1 they are the best value bet of the bunch to make amends and win the big one this season.

Xmas spirits

THE girl behind the counter at the off licence told me last night: "Have a great Christmas!"

I told her to save her breath – she'd probably see me at least seven times before they shut up shop for Xmas.

Chelsea will be hoping they won't have a hangover after their midweek win in the Capital One Cup and I reckon they'll take the three points against Aston Villa.

CAR-AZY BET

MY girlfriend claims she's a great driver but crashed her car whilst listening to Adele last night. She ended up rolling in the jeep.

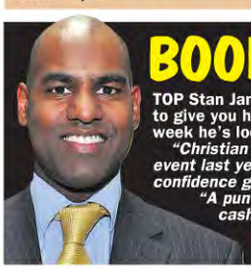

Man United are on a roll at the top of the Premier League, but I think they'll find it hard to get their own way at Swansea.

I reckon the Welsh outfit can at least hold them to a draw at the Liberty Stadium.

SHARE THE PAYNE!

IT'S MERV PAYNE WITH A FAN'S VIEW OF THE FOOTIE WEEK

There's more interest on their charge card than in the cup – and there'd be none if Chelsea had gone

CHELSEA'S win at Leeds this week must have come as a great relief to Capital One.

With none of the game's big names in the last four, interest would have been virtually zero.

Which is more than you can say for their bloody credit card that Mrs Merv has been hammering for the last few weeks.

Talking of blowing money, never mind Sturridge and Ince, the name Liverpool should be going for is Martin Lewis.

After letting Ince go to Blackpool for £250k and spending £35million on Andy Carroll in 2011 they're now looking to re-sign Ince for around £6m and have told Carroll he's surplus to requirements.

They could do with a sit down with Money Saving Expert Lewis – maybe he can find them a new striker on Groupon?

I HAVE you noticed how po-faced UEFA puppet Michel Platini (left) has gone a little quiet over his scathing criticism of cash-happy English clubs?

This seems to have coincided with Paris St Germain slinging it about like confetti. He doesn't seem to mind them PSG-ing it up the wall...

MERV'S FACT HUNT

LAST week I asked: Which ex-Arsenal player has won Champions League, UEFA Cup, FA Cup and Premier League medals? The answer is Kanu: 1995 Champions League – Ajax, 1998 UEFA Cup – Inter Milan, 2002 FA Cup – Arsenal, 2002 Premier League – Arsenal.

This week's Fact Hunt is: Which two players who share the same christian name played in the last FA Cup final and the last England international at the old Wembley?

Answer next week.

THE campaign to get Godfrey Chitalu recognised as the real holder of the goals scored in a calendar year record is gathering pace. Last Wednesday 5Live ran the story and revealed that FIFA's latest response to the Zambian FA's plea to have their star striker recognised is that their football is amateur! Hmmm pots and kettles...

FOOTIE FLASHBACK

MARCH 2003

MANCHESTER UNITED faced Champions League holders Real Madrid at Old Trafford for the second leg of their quarter-final looking to overturn a 3-1 deficit.

It quickly became 4-1 as the Brazilian Ronaldo bagged the first of a hat-trick which saw Madrid lead three times. United battled back to win a thriller 4-3 courtesy of two late Beckham strikes but it wasn't enough to see them into the semis.

I somehow managed to stay away long enough during Chelsea's World Club Championship final last weekend to hear Robbie Savage's half-time assessment. He claimed that Fernando Torres, whilst a good goal scorer, is technically not a good player. Which is a bit like Alan Carr accusing you of being camp.

TOR BLIMEY, NANDO'S SCORING AND HAPPY!

CHELSEA v ASTON VILLA
Kick-off 4pm – Live on Sky Sports 1

RAFAEL BENITEZ has claimed Fernando Torres' long-awaited return to form is proof that his Chelsea revolution is working.

Almost two years since his record-breaking move from Liverpool, Torres is finally starting to score sufficient goals to justify his £50million price tag.

Six in five games is by far the most sustained run of the 28-year-old striker's Stamford Bridge career – and it has coincided with his reunion with former Anfield boss Benitez.

Chelsea's interim chief immediately identified that Torres had lost some of the physical conditioning that had made him one of the most feared forwards in the world, as well as an obvious lack of confidence from failing to find the net.

"Two or three things that we are doing for some players are really good," said Benitez, who claims the sharpness in the majority of his players is "much better".

"Fernando is one of the examples," said Benitez.

"He's scoring goals and the team is winning and playing well, so he's really happy, not just because he's scoring goals but also because the team's doing well.

"The team is playing better and creating more chances, so Fernando is taking more chances."

Strong

Aston Villa chief executive Paul Faulkner insists he's delighted with the progress made under Paul Lambert.

Villa are unbeaten in six and Faulkner said: "There's a long way to go and no-one here is getting ahead of themselves.

"But encouragement is a vital ingredient in order to sustain everyone's effort along the way – and what we're starting to see is really encouraging.

"Collectively, we are trying to build something that will be strong and lasting – and those efforts are, hopefully, starting to bear fruit.

"Paul and the team are working hard to achieve the kind of progression the manager wants to oversee and that work ethic is mirrored throughout the club.

"We have a young, hungry, ambitious manager and we have a young, hungry, ambitious team."

SMILE PLEASE: Torres celebrates his goal against Leeds

£2m Michu is a brilliant catch, says Fergie

RED-HOT SPANIARD: Michu's 13 goals for Swansea have impressed Fergie

SWANSEA v MANCHESTER UNITED
Kick-off 1.30pm – Live on Sky Sports 1

SIR ALEX FERGUSON reckons Michael Laudrup pulled off a stunning deal to land Michu.

The Manchester United manager will be hoping his side can keep goal machine Michu quiet at the Liberty Stadium today.

Swansea got the 26-year-old Spaniard for just £2million in the summer from La Liga side Rayo Vallecano – and the hitman has bagged 13 goals so far this season.

The Scot joked he will have to give his scouts a rollicking for missing out on such a talent.

But Fergie (right) was serious when he said Laudrup was showing all the right signs to become a top boss.

"Cherry-picking the boy Michu is first-class business, £2m and I never even heard of him. I think I should have a word with my scouting department," quipped Ferguson.

"There are very few top players who become great managers, that goes without saying.

"I don't think Michael Laudrup is a great manager yet, but he has done everything right.

Panic

"We have to be aware of Michu. He has shown good finishing, his goals against Arsenal were completely composed.

"He went through on the goalkeeper and did not panic, so he has got that composure with his finishing.

"But I'm hopeful that we can deal with it."

The United boss has also revealed he will be making plenty of changes over the festive period.

He said: "December has always been a hectic month because of the number of games you play towards the end of the month.

"We had a European tie, then we had City at their ground, then Sunderland.

"Now we have a run of games on the 23rd, 26th, 29th, 1st and 5th.

"That's quite a programme. Using our pool of players will be important for us.

"It will be a different team every game – absolutely no doubt about that. All the players will be involved."

Swans boss Laudrup reckons United are favourites for the title after their derby win over City.

But the Dane will be hoping to put a spanner in the works today.

Laudrup said: "If you look at the table right now, I think with the points they have now they are favourites.

Vital

"It's the same for them as everyone else, the next six weeks will be vital with a lot of games.

"It will depend a lot on how the standings are when they go back into the Champions League in mid-February.

"We have done well against Chelsea, Arsenal and Manchester City, so why can't we do it against United?"

CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND-UP

BELLAMY BLASTS A BLUE BOOSTER

VOLLEY WELL DONE: Bellamy celebrates his wonder shot

CRAIG BELLAMY showed Leicester's lacklustre strikers how it's done with a classy finish to keep Cardiff top.

The Welsh striker blasted home from the edge of the area on 25 minutes to give his side a fortunate win.

The Bluebirds had been outplayed for long periods with Leicester hitting the bar on three occasions and had keeper David Marshall to thank for a string of fine saves.

It handed Leicester only their second home defeat in a game they totally dominated.

The stopper then kept out Morgan's header from Anthony Knockaert's cross before Andy King hit the post and Jamie Vardy hit the bar.

Knockaert then twice forced Marshall into saves before Cardiff stunned the home crowd on the break.

Luckless

Craig Conway's well-placed cross found Bellamy on the edge of the area who pounced to produce an excellent half volleyed effort.

Bellamy could have made it two, firing over after Kasper Schmeichel had failed to claim Peter Whittingham's free-kick.

But Leicester had further chances in the first-half as King fired wide of the post.

Vardy's luckless afternoon continued as he hit the bar for a second time with a header just before the break from Paul Konchesky's cross.

And he was replaced in the second half – not that that worked for Nigel Pearson.

Martyn Waghorn along with fellow subs Jesse Lingard and Ben Marshall struggled to get into the game as the home crowd got frustrated.

Nugent's header from Marshall's corner was cleared off the line by Conway.

But it was Cardiff who could have snatched a killer second as Aron Gunnarsson somehow missed his footing right in front of goal after Bellamy had unselfishly played him in.

CARDIFF 1

Palace win flies South

CRYSTAL PALACE 1
HUDDERSFIELD 1

WILFRIED ZAHA proved just why the Premier League giants are ready to spend big in the January sales but not even the wing wizard could fire Palace to victory.

Zaha produced a moment of magic to grab his fifth goal of the season only for Keith Southern's second-half strike to keep it all-square.

Palace played for 79 minutes with 10 men after Damien Delaney was sent off before Adam Clayton missed a Huddersfield spot-kick.

That miss was to prove costly as with just six minutes of the first half remaining, Zaha smashed home from 12 yards.

But Southern struck an equaliser with 15 minutes remaining and despite having Anthony Gerrard sent off late on, Town held out to take a point.

Zigic Niks Brum draw

BIRMINGHAM 2
BURNLEY 2

OLD stager Nikola Zigic scored a late equaliser to steal the show after his boss Lee Clark had fielded one of the youngest teams in the club's history.

Clark's seven teenagers lookeded to be heading for a win until Burnley scored twice.

But the rookies were saved by Serbian striker Zigic gave Blues a second consecutive 2-2 comeback draw.

Curtis Davies had given Birmingham the lead on the half-hour.

Then in the 66th minute Danny Ings squeezed in a shot from a tight angle before Ross Wallace curled a free-kick into the top corner.

But Zigic ensured it wasn't to be heartache for Clark's brave kids when he stabbed his shot home in the 89th minute under keeper Lee Grant.

Luciano's Becc to his best

LEEDS 2
MIDDLESBROUGH 1

A DEADLY double from goal machine Luciano Becchio fired Leeds to within touching distance of the play-off places.

The Argentine striker took his tally to 17 for the season to overturn Lucas Jutkiewicz's opener for Middlesbrough.

Neil Warnock's men were slow out of the blocks as Boro bossed the early possession.

Boro keeper Jason Steele pulled off a remarkable low save from full back Sam Byram's header before Jutkiewicz's shot was deflected in off defender Alan Tate.

Boro looked good for a half-time lead until Elland Road erupted courtesy of a Becchio screamer. The hitman turned inside the area and struck a sweet right foot volley which flew past Steele.

It was end-to-end after the interval, Jutkiewicz hit the post via Kenny's legs and Becchio (right) forced Steele to tip over.

However, Becchio wasn't to be denied from the resulting corner as he stooped to head home Diouf's outswinging cross.

Tony Mowbray's side forced a series of goal-mouth scrambles and Marvin Emnes' spectacular overhead kick was inches wide but Leeds somehow held on.

SHEFF WED 2 CHARLTON 0

RHYS McCABE'S first-half wonder strike set Sheffield Wednesday on the road to back-to-back wins.

It was the Scot's first goal since joining Wednesday from Rangers in the summer and proved well worth the wait.

The 20-year-old struck in the 20th minute as Lawrie Wilson half cleared Miguel Llera's corner.

The ball fell to McCabe (below) just outside the box and his stunning volley flew past Ben Hamer.

Jeremy Helan sealed the win with a low finish deep into added time.

For Charlton it was a frustrating day with manager Chris Powell sent to the stands at half-time after voicing his anger when Danny Haynes was denied a penalty.

Smith draws blood

IPSWICH 1
BRISTOL CITY 1

BOTH teams were dragged back towards the relegation battle after this survival scrap ended even.

Neil Danns opened the scoring for City but Town hit back through Tommy Smith.

Danns got his second goal in seven for the Robins, in the 11th minute, when he found a loose ball on the edge of the area and lashed past Stephen Henderson.

The 30-year-old, on loan from Leicester, also had a shot cleared by Bradley Orr, while Jon Stead scorned chances against his old club.

The Tractor Boys levelled through Smith who hooked in from six yards out.

Robins keeper Tom Heaton made an excellent double save from DJ Campbell and also denied substitute Michael Chopra, while Lee Martin was thwarted at the death.

MILLWALL 1 BARNSLEY 2

BARNSLEY moved out of the Championship relegation zone as Marcus Tudgay secured them their first win in 12 games against 10-man Millwall.

The striker (below) ran clear in the third minute of injury time to lift the ball calmly over David Forde and claim a deserved win.

Millwall were poor but had the chance to take the lead with Darius Henderson from the penalty spot, but the striker put his chance over the bar.

Stephen Dawson then put Barnsley ahead when he side-footed home, before Adam Smith was sent off for a two-footed tackle on David Perkins.

In-form Chris Wood looked like he had won the Lions a point when he scored from Liam Trotter's flick-on but Tudgay had the final word.

Tomlin starts rout

PETERBORO 5
BOLTON 4

FIVE star Peterborough overcame Bolton in a nine-goal thriller at London Road.

Posh got the perfect start after just two minutes, when Lee Tomlin slotted home past keeper Adam Bogdan before Dwight Gayle shot home three minutes later.

Bolton looked dead and buried, but a penalty netted by Keith Andrews right on half-time gave the Trotters a lifeline.

Posh hit back just after the restart through George Thorne, before Andrews got his second from the spot ten minutes later.

Mark Little scored his first goal in 14 months on 69 minutes, and Gabriel Zakuni headed home with seven minutes left.

Benik Afobe got a late header and Martin Petrov then made it a nervy last few minutes, but Posh survived.

WATFORD 2 N FOREST 0

MATEJ VYDRA'S double got Watford's play-off push back on course against 10-man Nottingham Forest.

Vydra struck twice in the first-half as Gianfranco Zola's men returned to winning ways.

Forest had begun well with Danny Collins and Billy Sharp coming close.

But it was one-way traffic once Vydra drew first blood in the 15th minute. The Czech striker fired home after collecting Almen Abdi's pass.

And Forest were given a mountain to climb when Daniel Ayala was dismissed with just 37 minutes played following two yellow cards.

It took just three minutes for Vydra (right) to exploit the extra room as he was given the freedom of Vicarage Road to slide the ball home.

ALL THE ACTION AND DRAMA FROM

Hot Stew shows he's ready to Kop a future under Brendan

LIVERPOOL 4 FULHAM 0

STEWART DOWNING may have just played himself into a future at Anfield.

The Liverpool winger bagged his first Premier League assist and goal as the rampant Reds thrashed Fulham.

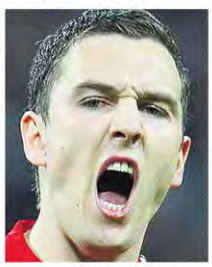

Brendan Rodgers has made no secret that the England international can leave for the right money in January – but the Reds boss may rethink that now.

Martin Skrtel volleyed Liverpool ahead before the Downing show started with an assist for Steven Gerrard and a goal from himself after the break.

Liverpool's home form has been a concern, with just three wins at Anfield.

Scoring goals has been a problem with just 10 at home, but Martin Skrtel showed he is capable of chipping in.

Gerrard floated in a corner and the defender took a touch and then volleyed home after eight minutes.

IMPRESSED: Downing

Screwed

But Daniel Agger showed why centre-backs are not always good finishers.

Suarez squared a ball to the Dane defender who, from just three yards, somehow screwed the ball over the bar.

Kieran Richardson burst from midfield before hitting a low shot that skidded off the surface but Liverpool keeper Pepe Reina saved with his feet.

Downing got his first Premier League assist for the Reds in the 36th minute.

He put a precise ball through for Gerrard, who turned and hit a low strike.

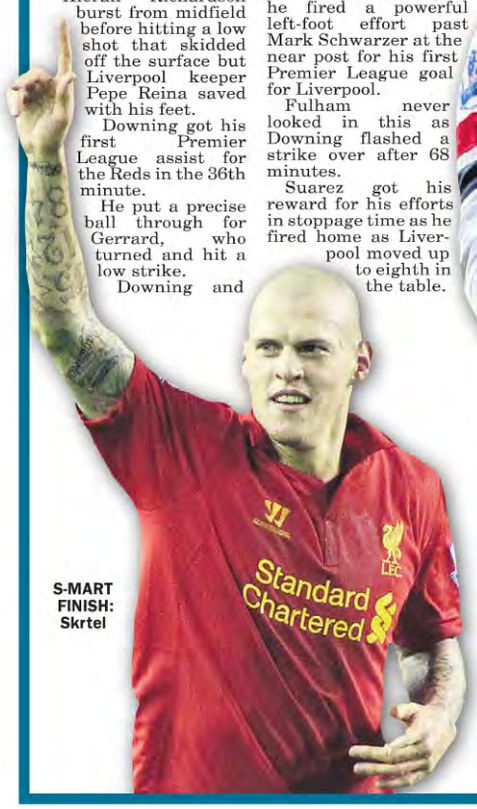

Downing and Liverpool's dominance continued after the break as the ex-Villa man set up Suarez for a great chance but the Uruguayan fired wide from close range.

The next time Downing got free down the right in 51st minute, he decided to go alone.

And after cutting in he fired a powerful left-foot effort past Mark Schwarzer at the near post for his first Premier League goal for Liverpool.

Fulham never looked in this as Downing flashed a strike over after 68 minutes.

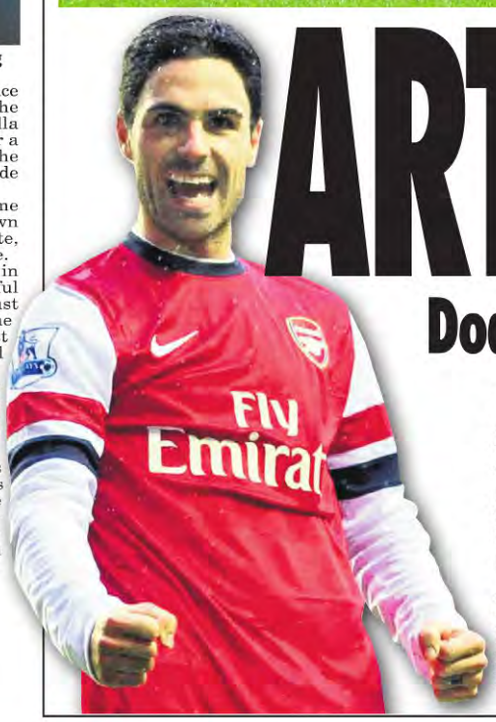

Suarez got his reward for his efforts in stoppage time as he fired home as Liverpool moved up to eighth in the table.

ART ATTACK

Dodgy penalty gives Ars third

By PETER FERGUSON

WIGAN 0 ARSENAL 1

ARSENAL pocketed the points thanks to a Mikel Arteta penalty but Wigan felt like they'd had their Christmas presents burgled.

Theo Walcott went down like an over-stuffed sack of toys under Jean Beausejour's challenge and ref Jon Moss gave the spot kick.

Wigan were rightly furious – they were a long way from being outclassed and looked nothing like a team struggling in the bottom three.

But the now firing Gunners picked up their third win on the trot and are the best placed London club – after Tottenham failed to beat Stoke.

Wigan boss Roberto Martinez came up with a new tactic to puzzle his opposite number – the home side started with a two-man defence!

TOTTENHAM 0 STOKE 0

TOTTENHAM could spend Christmas out of the top four after stubborn Stoke refused to buckle.

Andre Villas-Boas's boys saw Arsenal move above them into third earlier in the day – they'll be bumped down to fifth if Chelsea avoid defeat today. Stoke showed why they have the meanest defence in the Premier League and restricted the hosts to long-rangers.

The Potters had chances themselves – and Kyle Walker almost gifted them a first-minute opener with a crazy ball across his own box.

Kenwyne Jones was on in it a flash but the big striker blazed over with the goal at his mercy.

Then Spurs midfielder Sandro was lucky to get just a yellow for a studs-up challenge that hurt Glenn Whelan.

The same was also true of Stoke enforcer Steven N'Zonzi minutes later when he elbowed Mousa Dembele in the face.

Jones let Spurs off again when Sandro nipped in to block as he tried to tee up Matthew Etherington for a tap-in.

The home side had been quiet at the other end and there were no takers when Jan Vertonghen curled a great cross to the back post.

The Belgian had a go from distance himself after that but fired straight straight win and keeps Wigan in bottom three

McCarthy was there to help out when danger loomed, and Martinez later reverted to a flat back four just to be safe.

Arsenal had an early scare when Arouna Kone was flagged inches offside from McArthur's pass as Wigan took the game to the Gunners.

Ali Al Habsi, playing his 100th game since being signed from Bolton, had to save well from Alex Oxlade-Chamberlain after a smart move.

Santi Carzola, the hat-trick hero in the 5-2 win at Reading, produced a fabulous pass to send Arteta down the middle to threaten Al Habsi's goal.

Raking

At the other end Kone slipped past two tackles but chose to shoot from range and gave Wojciech Szczesny a routine save.

But Arsenal were finding plenty of space in the Wigan half.

Lukas Podolski saw his fierce shot beaten out by the keeper, and Boyce did well to clear Cazorla's low raking cross soon after.

Franco Di Santo's great backheel set up a one-two with Shaun Maloney but his team-mate's return was too far ahead and Szczesny got there first.

After 23 minutes Di Santo conjured the pass of the game, a super effort from inside his own half that sent Kone racing away.

The Ivory Coast striker got the better of Per Mertesacker only to pull his shot wide when the keeper rushed out.

The huge groans from the home crowd showed they were not expecting to have many more chances like that.

Ronnie Stam did cut in after a good Wigan passing move but his weak shot was easily smothered at the near post.

Jack Wilshere was ref Moss' first booking, but the replays showed it to be a perfectly fair tackle on Maloney.

Al Habsi came up with a cracking save from Theo Walcott to prevent Arsenal taking the lead on 48 minutes.

Oxlade-Chamberlain pulled the ball back for the Arsenal forward, but Al Habsi was equal to his effort.

And when the Reds did take the lead on the hour, Walcott was at the centre of things.

Arteta easily sent Al Habsi the wrong way.

AM THE MAN: Ameobi with Perch after his winner

NEWCASTLE 1
QPR 0

ALAN PARDEW'S Christmas dinner will be a whole load tastier thanks to Shola Ameobi's late winner.

The Toon boss insisted he couldn't enjoy his turkey and all the trimmings if his off-key troops failed to deliver the win he demanded against Harry Redknapp's Rangers.

For 80 minutes it looked like it would be a cruel Yule in the Pardew household as the Geordies huffed and puffed to find a way past the hard-to-beat Hoops.

And for most of the contest, Toon looked to have too many turkeys out on the pitch – until Ameobi grabbed his first Premier League goal since March to lift the pressure on the Toon boss and pull his side five points clear of danger.

With trips to Man United and Arsenal next up, it was a vital three points to help send the Geordies into Christmas in high spirits thanks to only a second win in 12 games.

QPR had looked good for a point and a fifth game unbeaten under Redknapp.

But they had little time to turn things around after Ameobi took a pass from fellow substitute Sylvain Marveaux to cut inside Junior Hoilett and fire past Rob Green from 12 yards.

Only in the last half-hour did Newcastle show any signs of urgency to finally force Rangers on the back foot and continue the Londoners' 19-year run without a win on Tyneside.

Fuming forward Papiss Cisse refused to shake Pardew's hand when he was hauled off.

But the Toon boss (left) was dead right as subs Ameobi, Marveaux and Gabi Obertan breathed some much-needed life into a lacklustre display.

QPR keeper Rob Green was forced to hurriedly beat out Vurnon Anita's free-kick and also did well to block a header from Demba Ba, who got on the end of an Obertan cross as the Magpies sensed the chance to nick a much-too-rare victory.

Ba looked as if he had other things on his mind – a January move to Arsenal, maybe – as he disappointed with two awful first-half free-kicks.

Both efforts were more dangerous to fans sat in the Gallowgate End than to Green, who was finally called into action after the break.

AVB'S TOP-FOUR BID

at Potters keeper Asmir Begovic.

Fit-again Gareth Bale had taken time to get back in full flow but his cross from the left was perfect for Emmanuel Adebayor at the back post but the striker could only nod his side's best chance of the half over. Jermain Defoe fired two efforts off target either side of a Dembele effort that also missed, and he did the same again after the re-start once Andy Wilkinson had gone in the book for blocking Aaron Lennon.

Jon Walters' error let in Defoe but it was a repeat of the earlier Jones chance and Stoke cleared. Bale headed over after swapping flanks with Lennon before Ryan Shotton fired tamely at Hugo Lloris at the other end.

Defoe was continuing to shoot on sight and saw another effort deflected behind, but Stoke were determined at the back and held out. Dean Whitehead came on for Shotton and the newcomer was immediately booked for fouling Vertonghen.

Begovic was behind a Bale long-ranger as time began to run out for the home side, who sent Gylfi Sigurdsson on for Lennon for the last 10 minutes.

Bale went down in the box under sub Cameron Jerome's challenge in the last minute but ref Lee Mason wasn't having any of it.

Sigurdsson almost won it in stoppage time but Begovic dived to paw his header away to earn a point for Stoke.

WEST HAM 1
EVERTON 2

SAM ALLARDYCE and his West Ham players have got the green light to live it up this week – but referee Anthony Taylor made sure their hangovers kicked in early.

With their Boxing Day trip to Arsenal called off because of a Tube strike, the Hammers have been given an unexpected Christmas break.

And they looked set to celebrate in style before Taylor sparked fury when he dismissed Carlton Cole midway through the second half.

That paved the way for Everton to take control in the final stages and clinch all three points through Steven Pienaar's bundled winner.

The referee balanced things up with another dodgy decision to send off Everton's Darron Gibson in added time.

SENT OFF: Cole

Stunned

It was bad enough that the sending-off came a minute after Victor Anichebe had cancelled out Cole's first half opener.

But more frustrating that Taylor acted at all when Cole attempted to bring down a high ball as Everton left-back Leighton Baines tried to head clear.

Cole's boot caught Baines' chest – but both sides were left stunned when the ref decided there was intent.

Allardyce was left fuming on the touchline, but worse was to come when the Hammers' defence buckled and allowed Pienaar to score a scrappy 73rd-minute winner.

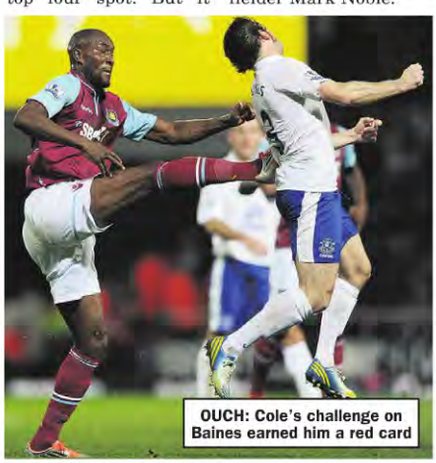

The win strengthened Everton's challenge for a top four spot. But it looked as though West Ham would be stepping up their pressure on the top half of the table in the opening 45 minutes.

They survived a scare in the 13th minute when Leon Osman headed home from a corner – only for it to be ruled out because Anichebe was backing into keeper Jussi Jaaskelainen.

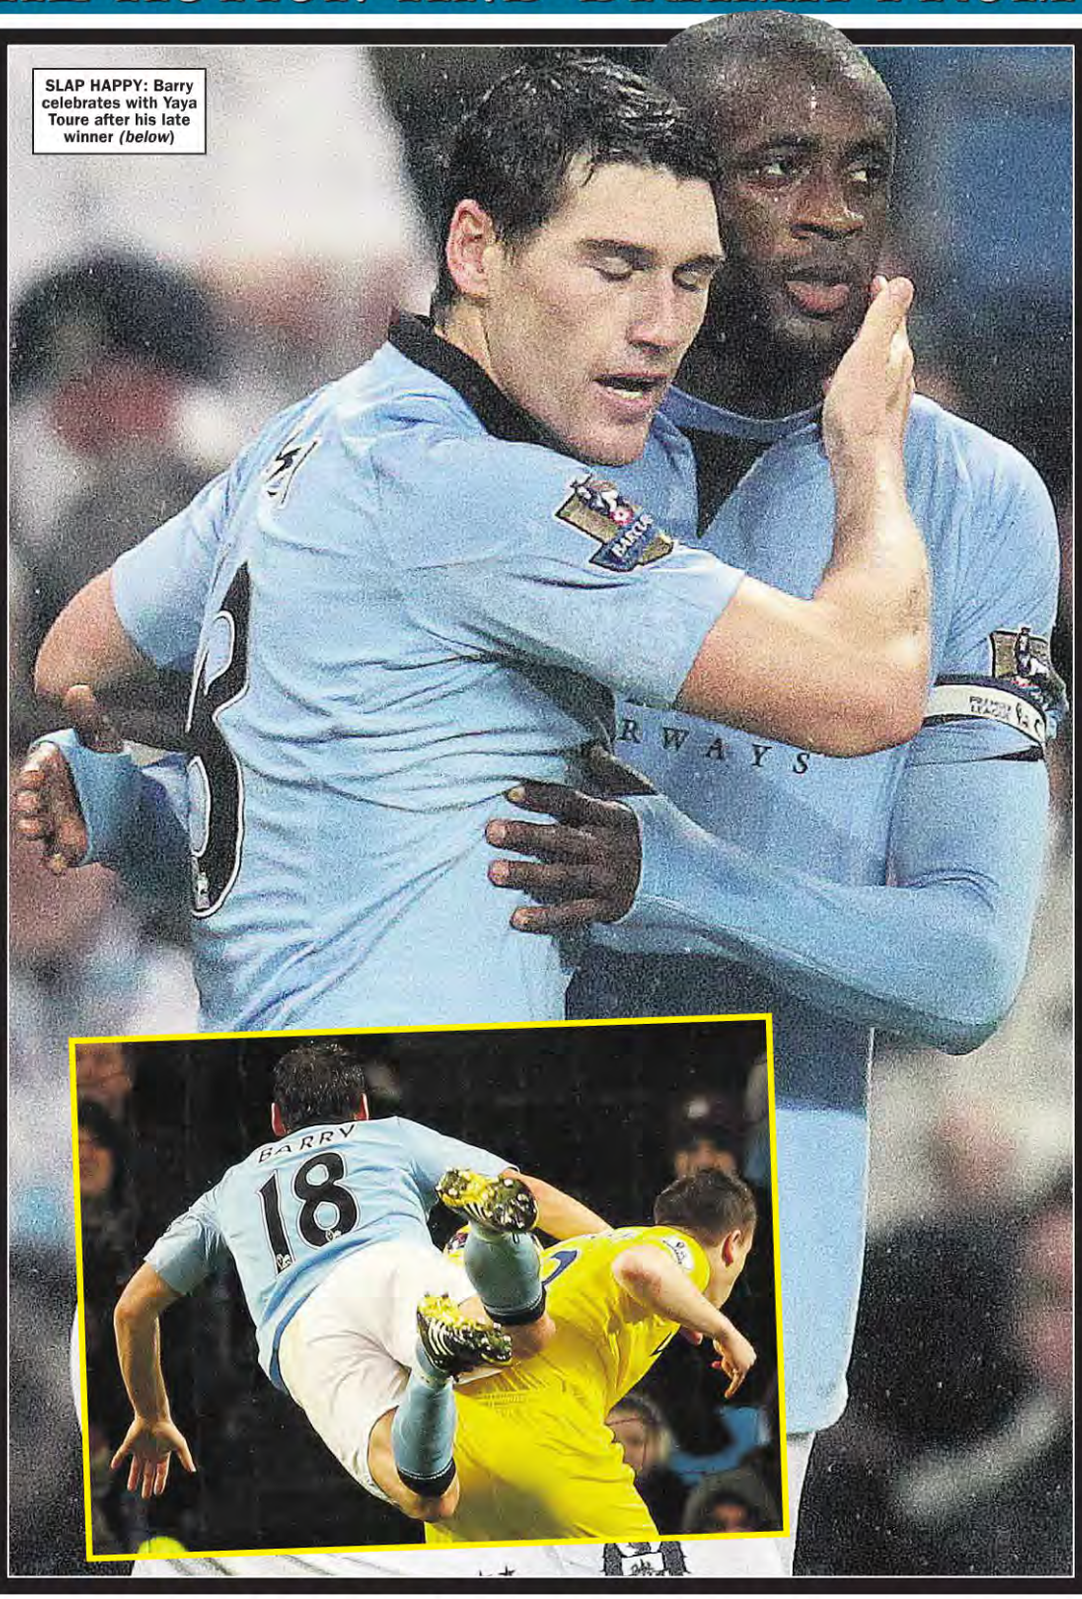

The Hammers went straight up the other end and Cole produced a deadly right-foot finish after being played through by Matt Taylor.

Everton responded well after the break and were level when Pienaar crossed for Anichebe to head home.

Then came Taylor's moment of madness, which he repeated in the final minute when Gibson's high foot caught Hammers mid-fielder Mark Noble.

SUNDERLAND 1

STEVEN FLETCHER gave Sunderland just what they wanted from their longest Premier League trip of the season – three vital points.

The win – only their second in seven games and their second away from home in 17 attempts – widened the Black Cats' advantage over the Saints to four points.

It also eased the pressure on boss Martin O'Neill and gives Sunderland a vital confidence boost for a sequence of tough festive clashes against Manchester City, Tottenham and Liverpool.

Southampton had not played for a fortnight because Chelsea, their scheduled previous opponents, were involved in the Club World Cup in Japan.

And it showed as Nigel Adkins' side looked rusty, despite going into the game fifth in the Premier League form table.

Adkins gave a first Premier League start to Emmanuel Mayuka in place of injured skipper Adam Lallana, but he made little impression.

Saints keeper Kelvin Davis made a diving fingertip save to deflect Stephane Sessegnon's 25-yard thunderbolt wide in the first minute as Sunderland flew out of the blocks.

BARRY'S A BUTT SPECIAL!

Controversial last-gasp header wins it for City

By IAN WHITTELL

GARETH BARRY netted the controversial injury-time winner that kept Manchester City in touch at the top of the Premier League.

The midfielder climbed over defender Nicky Shorey to head home David Silva's cross in the third minute of four added on at the end of a frustrating clash.

Furious Reading players and coaches appealed that Barry had fouled his marker – but ref Mike Dean let City off with a great escape.

With Reading red-hot relegation favourites, it was hard to imagine that Roberto Mancini's mob would have too many problems cutting United's lead at the top to three points.

Sure enough, City camped in the Reading half from kick-off and the only surprise was that City had not wrapped up the game inside half-an-hour.

Sergio Aguero might have won a pen after 10 minutes when he breezed to the by-line, being tripped by Adrian Mariappa in the process.

Silva then collected a pass from Tevez and saw his shot deflected behind as City's slick passing game tore holes in the Reading defence.

Relief

Barry's cross was laid off superbly by Aguero for Carlos Tevez, whose near-post blast was well saved by keeper Adam Federici.

And a shot from Javi Garcia hit Ian Harte and won City a corner, much to Federici's relief.

City really should have lifted the building frustration around the Etihad after 34 minutes when Tevez picked out Barry with a cross.

But the midfielder's header was far too close to Federici who blocked it on the goal-line.

David Silva reached the by-line and tried to pick out Yaya Toure on the six-yard line but the City enforcer was well blocked off by defender Alex Pearce.

Pablo Zabaleta then saw his shot hit Karacan and loop over the keeper, landing on the roof of the net.

And Matija Nastasic even chanced his arm, his volley flashing well wide.

Reading's entire first half output had been limited to a couple of Jimmy Kebe crosses which couldn't quite find Jobi McAnuff.

Although Karacan opened the second half with a dangerous cross which Zabaleta headed clear decisively, it was soon business as usual.

Tevez's curling 51st minute free-kick might have sneaked in the far post but Federici made sure it did not with a clearing punch.

But there was another warning sign for the misfiring Blues as Pearce rose powerfully to head Harte's free-kick just over.

Mancini brought on super-sub Edin Dzeko and the striker almost made an immediate impact when Zabaleta worked his way to the by-line.

The cross was just behind Dzeko, who had an open goal at his mercy, and Reading escaped again.

Dzeko was again the danger man, meeting Silva's corner with a powerful bullet header which flew just wide.

City could count themselves lucky, though, because Brian McDermott's men might have sneaked the most incredible opener after 75 minutes.

Pavel Pogrebnyak pounced on a slip by Kolo Toure and surged down the left before crossing.

Nastasic appeared to handle as he tried to clear.

The visitors appealed for a pen before Kebe picked out Pogrbnyak whose deflected shot was easily saved.

RAGING ROYALS: It's agony for Mikele Leigertwood after City's disputed goal

HOME ONE HAPPY PARTY

Gardner rescued the Black Cats by touching it wide.

Then Simon Mignolet kept out a dipping volley from Saints' record signing Gaston Ramirez with a spectacular dive to his right.

But although Southampton were doing all the attacking, they missed the subtlety of the absent Lallana.

And they were also open to any quick break from the Wearsiders.

It came after 42 minutes as James McClean sent Adam Johnson down the left and the England winger cut the ball back for Sessegnon to line up a left-foot shot.

He completely shanked his effort but Sunderland got lucky as the ball travelled on into the path of Steven Fletcher, who poked the ball past Davis.

That seemed to liven the Wearsiders up no end and they nearly made it 2-0 early in the second half as Sessegnon and Fletcher stretched to try to reach Gardner's low shot but couldn't quite get the final touch.

Saints were struggling to get back into the game. Jose Fonte got his head to a corner but nodded wide of goal and Lambert was mostly in the pocket of Carlos Cuellar and John O'Shea.

He nearly twisted into a scoring position in injury time but the ball went loose and, when Ramirez volleyed it goalwards, Danny Rose threw himself in the way to make sure of the win.

REMINDER: Lukakus

Just Luk what you're missing, Chelsea!

WEST BROM 2
NORWICH 1

ROMELU LUKAKU handed parent club Chelsea a timely reminder of his goalscoring prowess with a late winner as West Brom came from behind to end Norwich's unbeaten run.

Ben Foster had showed signs of ring rustiness on his return from seven games out with a groin injury as he failed to keep out Robert Snodgrass' first-half free-kick.

Zoltan Gera levelled with Albion's first goal in 358 minutes before Lukaku netted his sixth goal of the campaign with eight minutes left.

The result lifted the Baggies up to sixth above Chelsea, whose boss Rafa Benitez has the option to bring an early end to Lukaku's season-long loan at the Hawthorns next month.

While the result ended a four-game winless sequence for the Baggies, it finally brought an end to the Canaries' 10-match Premier League unbeaten streak.

Reward

Foster had a nightmare return on 23 minutes when he failed to turn Snodgrass' free-kick around his post.

But Albion fought back and their goal drought was finally broken in the 43rd minute.

And, once again, the scorers had the opposing goalkeeper to thank.

Jonas Olsson rose highest to meet Chris Brunt's deep corner but Mark Bunn could only push his bouncing header against his own crossbar and Gera was in prime position to steal in.

It was a deserved reward for the Hungary international's bravery.

Just seconds before, he had been involved in a bruising head collision – and had he gone off for treatment he would still have been stuck on the sidelines when Brunt's set-piece was taken.

Baggies boss Steve Clarke smelt blood and Marc-Antoine Fortune and Shane Long came on.

That positivity was rewarded when Lukaku rose above Javier Garrido to head home Goran Popov's pinpoint cross.

MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL OUR READERS!

ROCKIN' ROBIN: Van Persie

VAN IN A MILLION

We're up against the crem de la Prem, says Swans keeper

MICHEL VORM will have to stop the "Premier League's best striker" from adding to his tally today.

The Swansea goalkeeper reckons his Dutch international team-mate Robin van Persie is peerless at the minute.

Vorm (right), set to feature for the Swans after eight months out with a groin injury, said: "I think he's the best striker in the Premier League – not just because he has scored 12 goals but because he's a team player. His technique is incredible but he also works hard.

SWANSEA v MANCHESTER UTD

Today, 1.30pm – Sky Sports 1

"Last season I think he covered the most ground in the league as a striker and he scored 30 goals.

"He has a new club now but he looks like he's been there for years. He's 29 and at his peak – and at the moment I think he's the best.

"He's so clever, when you train with players like that it's hard to read their game.

"I'll never forget the game here against Arsenal last season where he scored the first goal.

"It was a narrow angle, he went to shoot with his right foot but then he dummied and scored. I couldn't believe it!

"You can't read him and that is quality. You have to be on top of your game."

MIKEL ARTETA'S spot-kick fired Arsenal up to third in the table – but Roberto Martinez accused Theo Walcott of "buying" the winning penalty.

The Wigan boss was disgusted with Walcott after he went down under Jean Beausejour's challenge on the hour mark.

Referee Jon Moss pointed to the spot – leaving Martinez fuming.

"When I saw it live it looked very, very soft," he said.

"It's difficult to tell if there's contact or not, and that doesn't mean it's a penalty – the contact has to stop you from staying on your feet.

"The player has real experience and he knew a penalty would change the game and give them real hope of the three points.

"I thought he bought the decision."

"There are a lot of players here who earn far too much for what they give the club.
